KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS.

That Emma Gordon of the first part, in consideration of the sum of One hundred nine & 15/100 DOLLARS to me in-hand paid by John Hogan of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has bargained and sold and by these presents do bargain and sell unto the said party of the second part, his executors, administrators and assigns, all the following articles of personal property, the same being the absolute property of, and now in possession of said party of the first part at his farm or ranch in the Western District Crease Nation, and within the Western District, Indian Territory, to-wit:

One Gray mare about six years old branded O on left thigh.
One bay horse three years old white face three years old known as John Hogan horse.
One red cow about three years old with calf at side branded B.F. on right shoulder.
One brindle cow three or four years old with calf at side branded N.D. on right hip.
All above stock kept on what is known as Emma Gordon place about ten miles south and east of Tulsa, I.T. in Creek Nation.

Provided, always, and these presents are upon this express condition: That if the said party of the first part shall pay, or cause to be paid, to the said party of the second part, or to his executors, administrators or assigns, the fees for releasing this mortgage, and the aforesaid sum of $ 102.00 according to the terms of certain promissory note of which the following is a synopsis, viz:

Date Nov 17 1906; Due Jan 1 1907 Signed by Emma Gordon
Date 190; Due 190 Signed by

Rate of interest per cent from maturity, then these presents and everything herein contained shall be void. But if default shall be made in the payment of said sum of money or any part thereof, or the interest thereon, at the time or times when by the condition of the said note the same shall become payable, or if said party of the second part shall at any time deem himself insecure for any cause, without assigning any reasons therefor, or if said property is removed from the district aforesaid, then and thenceforth it shall be lawful for said party of the second part, his executors, administrators or assigns, or his authorized agent to declare said note and mortgage due, and to take said goods and chattels wherever same may be found, and dispose of same or so much as may be necessary, without appraisalment (the appraisalment required by law being hereby expressly waived), at public auction, at the place where said property is found or taken, or at Tulsa, Ind. Ter. for cash in hand, upon two weeks notice in some newspaper published in the Western District, or the county where taken, or by written notices posted in five (5) conspicuous places near the property, at which sale any of the parties hereto may purchase as other parties, and out of the proceeds of said sale, the said party of the second part to retain the sum due him, as herein set forth, and the cost of this trust and of sale, rendering the overplus, if any, to the said party of the first part, his executors, administrators or assigns, and if from any cause said property shall fail to satisfy said debt and interest aforesaid, said party of the first part hereby agrees to pay the deficiency and until default be made as aforesaid, or until such time as the party of the second part shall deem himself insecure as aforesaid, the said party of the first part to continue in the peaceable possession of all the said goods and chattels, all of which, in consideration hereof, he engages shall be kept in as good condition as the same now are, and taken care of at his proper cost and expense. It is hereby represented, and this mortgage is accepted on the faith of said representation, that there are no liens or claims of any kind on the above property, but this mortgage is a first lien thereon.
