And the said parties of the first part covenant and agree that at the delivery hereof they are the lawful owner of the premises hereby conveyed, and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein, free and clear of all incumbrances, whatsoever, and they will warrant and forever defend the title to and possession of the same unto said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, against the lawful claims of all persons whomsoever. This conveyance, however, is intended as a mortgage for the better securing of the said sum of Two Thousand ($2000) DOLLARS, justly due and owing by the said parties of the first part to the said Virgil R. Coss Mortgage Company, its successors or assigns, and evidenced by one certain promissory note, bearing even date herewith and due on the first day of July A. D. 1911 and bearing six per cent. interest from date, payable semi-annually, evidenced until maturity by interest coupon notes thereto annexed, and ten per cent. interest after maturity; given for an actual loan of money.

The parties of the first part agree to procure and maintain policies of insurance on the building located on the premises hereby conveyed, in such insurance companies as said second party shall select, to the sum of one thousand ($1000) DOLLARS, with premium therefor fully paid, which said policy or policies shall be assigned to and held by said second party, its successors or assigns, as collateral and additional security for the payment of the indebtedness hereby secured.

It is further stipulated and agreed, that in case the party of the second part, its successors or assigns, shall hereafter appear in any of the land departments of the General Government, or any court or tribunal whatever, in order to preserve or protect the title to or possession of the premises hereby conveyed and warranted, that all such costs and expenses incurred therein shall bear interest at ten per cent. thereafter; and that in case of a foreclosure hereof, and as often as any proceedings shall be had or taken to foreclose same, the holder hereof may recover from the first part an attorney's fee of fifty dollars, which sum shall be due upon the filing of a petition in foreclosure; and for all such costs, expenses and attorney's fees, this mortgage shall stand as security.

It is further agreed and understood, that upon a breach of the warranty herein, or upon the failure or refusal to pay the principal indebtedness hereby secured when due, or any part thereof, or any interest thereon, at maturity, or any tax or assessment herein mentioned, or to comply with any requirements herein contained, that the whole sum hereby secured shall at once, and without notice, become due and payable, at the option of the holder hereof, and shall bear interest thereafter at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, and the said party of the second part, its successors or assigns, shall be entitled to a foreclosure of this mortgage, and to have the said premises sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of the indebtedness hereby secured; and that immediately upon the filing of the petition in foreclosure the holder hereof shall be entitled to possession of said premises, and to each and every part thereof, and to collect and apply the rents therefrom, less the reasonable expenditures, to the payment of said indebtedness; and for this purpose the holder hereof shall be entitled to a receiver, to the appointment of which the mortgagors hereby consent, which appointment may be made either before or after the decree of foreclosure; and the holder hereof shall in no case be held to account for any damages, nor for any rental other than those actually received. The appraisal of said premises is hereby expressly waived.

All covenants and agreements herein contained shall run with the land hereby conveyed; and this mortgage and the evidence of indebtedness hereby secured shall in all respects be governed and construed by the laws of Oklahoma.
