

for the value of said house, in the Colonial Trust Company, of Tulsa, Oklahoma; that said Ralsa F. Morley asked said Edward Crowell in my presence if he was willing to withdraw his protest and waive all right, title and claim in and to the said property if said Amelia K. Crowell would so deposit said $500.00 in the Colonial Trust Company to abide the determination of his suit, whereupon said Edward Crowell instructed his said attorney in my presence and within my hearing to accept said proposition and to withdraw his protest to the confirmation of said sale, and stated that he had no further right, title, interest or claim in or to said property, or words to that effect, and that the said Morley, as attorney for said Edward Crowell, thereupon publicly announced that the said protest of his said client was withdrawn, that he claimed no further interests in the property and that the sale should go on, that he did not desire to block the sale and that the claims of his client were withdrawn.
