Know all Men by these Presents, THAT I, G. L. Holt, and Sallie B. Holt, his wife, of Indian Territory, for and in consideration of the sum of Nine Hundred and fifty ($950) DOLLARS, to them in hand paid by The First State Bank of Broken Arrow, I. T. the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained and sold, and do hereby Grant, Bargain, Sell and Convey unto the said First State Bank and unto its heirs and assigns, the following described real estate situated in as follows - The North fifty feet of Lot No. One (1) in Block One hundred and forty seven (147) in the town of Tulsa, Indian Territory according to the official plat of said town & subject to former mortgage of $1600.00 in favor of Interstate Mortgage Trust Co of Parsons Kansas.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD THE SAME unto the said First State Bank and unto its heirs and assigns forever, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereto belonging.
 And we, the said G. L. Holt and Sallie B. Holt for ourselves and our heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, covenant with the said First State Bank (supra) that we and our heirs and assigns, that we are lawfully seized in fee of the aforesaid premises; that they are free from all incumbrances; that we have good right to sell and convey the same to the said First State Bank as aforesaid; and that we will and our heirs, executors, and administrators shall forever warrant and defend the title to said real estate against all lawful claims and demands whatever.
 And I, the said Sallie B. Holt wife of the said G. L. Holt for and in consideration of the said sum of money, do hereby release and quit-claim, transfer and relinquish unto the said First State Bank and its heirs and assigns, all my right or possibility of dower in or to said lands.

The foregoing conveyance is on conditions: That, whereas, the said G. L. Holt and Sallie B. Holt are is justly indebted to the said First State Bank in the sum of Nine Hundred and fifty DOLLARS, for borrowed money, evidenced by one promissory note dated Nov. 25th 1906 payable to First State Bank of Broken Arrow, I. T.

Now, if the said G. L. Holt and Sallie B. Holt shall pay or cause said note to be paid, with interest, according to the tenor and effect thereof, then this instrument to be null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

And it is hereby further stipulated that during the continuance of this instrument in force, the said G. L. Holt shall at all times keep all taxes fully paid, as required by law, and shall keep the buildings on said premises insured against loss or damage by fire and tornado in the sum of not less than $500; loss, if any, payable to the said First State Bank as his interest may appear.

And it is further hereby agreed, that in case the said G. L. Holt shall make default in payment of taxes or of keeping said building insured as aforesaid, then the said First State Bank or its legal representative, may pay such taxes, and effect such insurance, and the amount necessarily expended therefor, with interest at 5 per cent. per annum from the date of such expenditure until repaid shall be considered a sum, the repayment of which is intended to be hereby secured. And we hereby waive all rights of appraisal or redemption to which we are entitled under the Acts of the Legislature, approved March 17, 1879, and March 17, 1883, respectively.

And if default be made in payment of the sums hereby secured at maturity, or when the same or either of them becomes due and payable, then the said grantee, or its assign, agent or attorney, shall have power to sell said property at public sale, to the highest bidder, for cash, in town of Tulsa, I. T. public notice of the time and place of said sale having first been given 30 days, by advertising in some newspaper published in said Town or by printed or written handbills posted up in public places in said city; at which sale the said grantee or assignee may bid and purchase as any third person might do; and we hereby authorize the said grantee or assignee to convey said property to any one purchasing at the said sale, and the recitals of his deed of conveyance shall be taken as prima facie true, and the proceeds of said sale shall be applied, first, to the payment of all costs and expenses attending said sale; second, to the payment of said debt and interest; and the remainder, if any, shall be paid to said grantors.

Witness our hands on this 25th day of November A. D. 1906.
