containing eight acres, more or less, according to the official government plat and survey thereof.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD THE SAME unto the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns forever, with all the privileges and appurtenances thereunto belonging.

And the said party of the first part for themselves and their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, covenant with the said party of the second part that at the delivery hereof, they are lawfully seized and possessed of an absolute and indefeasible estate of inheritance in fee simple in and to said real estate; that the same is free and clear of all incumbrances whatsoever, and that they have a good right to sell and convey the same to the said party of the second part, and that they will and their heirs, executors and administrators shall forever warrant and defend the title to said real estate unto the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns against all lawful claims and demands whatever.

And the said Nora White wife of the said Clarence G. White for said consideration does hereby release, relinquish, quit-claim, transfer and convey unto the said party of the second part, their heirs, successors and assigns, all her right, claim or possibility of dower and homestead in or to said Real estate forever.

THE FOREGOING CONVEYANCE IS ON CONDITION: That, Whereas the said party of the first part are justly indebted to the said party of the second part in the sum of One Thousand Dollars for money loaned to said first part by said second party as is evidenced by one certain principal promissory note of even date herewith for One Thousand Dollars drawing interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum until due and 8 per centum interest after due until paid; said interest payable Semi- annually as evidenced by interest coupon notes attached thereto and payable on the first days of May and November of each year until the maturity of said principal note, said interest notes drawing 8 per centum per annum interest after due until paid.

Now if the said party of the first part shall pay or cause to be paid said principal and interest notes according to the tenor and effect thereof and do and perform all and every other covenant and agreement herein, then this instrument shall be null and void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

It is further agreed by the said first part to here to that during the continuance in force of this instrument they shall pay all taxes and assessments as and at the time required by law.

It is further agreed by the said first part to here to that they will keep the improvements on said real estate, now existing or hereafter made thereon from time to time, constantly insured against fire, until said notes are paid, in the sum of at least 100 Dollars, in such companies as said party of the second part may designate, said policies to be placed in the name of said party of the second part, and that in every such contract or policy of insurance provision shall be made that all payments for losses sustained therein insured against shall be paid to the said party of the second part, or to their heirs, successors or assigns, or their interest may appear, to be used in the payment of said notes and the interest thereon as aforesaid, if not otherwise paid, but said party of the second part may allow the party of the first part, or those having the said party of the first part's estate in the premises, to use the same for the repair of the improvements on said real estate, provided such repairs be made and completed without unnecessary delay.

And it is further stipulated, that in case the said party of the first part shall make default in the payment of the taxes or assessments against said real estate as and at the times required by law, or in case the said party of the first part shall fail to keep the improvements on said real estate, now existing or hereafter made thereon from time to time, constantly insured against fire, then the said second party, or their legal representative may pay such taxes or assessments and or hereafter made thereon from time to time, constantly insured against fire, and the amount so expended therefor, with interest at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum from the date of such expenditure until paid, shall be considered a sum the repayment of which is intended to be hereby secured.

It is further agreed that should a petition be filed to foreclose this mortgage, gain possession of said real estate or to protect the right of the mortgagee herein or the title or possession to said real estate, that said mortgagee will pay a reasonable attorneys fee, and the payment thereof shall also be secured by this mortgage.

And if default be made in the payment of said notes at maturity, or any of the interest notes when due, or of the taxes or assessments aforesaid, or in case the said party of the first part shall fail to keep the improvements on said real estate, now existing or hereafter made thereon from time to time, constantly insured against fire, or any part of either, or if any of the conditions hereinbefore set forth, then, in any or either event, upon the breach of any one of these conditions, the whole of the sums intended to be hereby secured shall, at the option of the grantee hereof, or the legal holder hereof, become immediately due and payable without notice, and the grantee or the legal holder hereof, or their assigns, agent or attorney, shall have the power to sell said property, or any part thereof, at public sale to the highest bidder for cash at the then front court house door, in the County seat of the County in which said real estate is situated, Indian Territory, public notice of the time and place, and terms of sale having first been given thirty days by advertising in some newspaper published in, or of general circulation in said town or Territory, or by printed or written hand bills posted in ten public places in the vicinity of said land, at which sale the said grantee or assigns may bid and purchase as any third person might do, and the said party of the first part hereby authorizes the said grantee, or their assigns, to convey said property to any purchaser at said sale, and the recitals of its deed of conveyance shall be taken as prima facie true, and the proceeds of said sale shall be applied first, to the payment of all costs and expenses attending said sale; second, to the payment of said debts and interest, and the remainder, if any, to the grantor.

It is further agreed, that the said party of the first part hereby waive all rights of appraisement, sale or redemption and homestead in and to said mortgaged premises.

In testimony whereof the parties of the first part have hereunto subscribed their names and affixed their seals, this 7th day of June A. D. 1907
