ORDER CONFIRMING SALE.

Now on this 18th day of July, 1910, there coming on for hearing the return of sale made by Andrew J. Berryhill, as the guardian of the estate of Mildred Berryhill, minor, and it appearing to the court that due notice of this hearing has been given as required by law and the order of the court, by posting notices hereof in three of public places in Tulsa County at least ten days before the day set for hearing, and said guardian now appearing in person and by Lawrence & Lawrence, his attorneys, and there also appearing herein Claude Sample, bidder on said land, and no objections being made or exceptions filed to said return of sale, and no person appearing to contest the same, and the court having examined the same and having heard and considered the evidence of witnesses offered in support thereof, and being fully advised doth find that in pursuance of an order of sale duly made and entered herein on the 9th day of April, 1910, said guardian after due advertisement as required by law and said order of sale, did on the 3rd day of May, 1910, at nine o'clock A.M., at the County Court room in Tulsa county, Oklahoma, sell the real estate of said minor described as follows, to-wit:

The North west Quarter of the South-east Quarter of Section Twenty (20) Township Seventeen (17) North Range Thirteen (13) East, in Tulsa county, State of Oklahoma, at private sale to one Claude Sample for the sum of $585.00 cash in hand upon approval of sale by the court; that said sale was made after due notice as prescribed by law and said order of sale; that said purchaser was the highest bidder therefor and said sum the highest and best sum bid; that said sale was legally made and fairly conducted; that said sum equals ninety per cent of the appraised value of said land and is not disproportionate to the value of the property sold, and that a sum exceeding said bid at least ten per cent exclusive of the expense of a new sale cannot be obtained; that said guardian has given additional bond in the sum of $1200.00 as required by said
