

ined the exhibits, proofs and evidence and being full advised in the premises, finds that said guardian has given notice of the time and place of the hearing upon the said return and account of sale, by posting ~~not~~ proper and sufficient notice thereof in three of the most public places in Craig County, Oklahoma, more than ten clear days before the date fixed for such hearing, as required by the order of this court.

Now on this 15th day of August, 1910 at the hour of 11:00 in the forenoon of said day at the Court room in Vinita, Craig County, Oklahoma, it being the day and hour set for the hearing on said return and report of sale, the guardian appearing in person and by his attorneys, and there being no objections made or filed to the hearing on said return, and no objections made to the confirmation of the sale therein reported, and due and legal notice having been given as provided by law and the order of this Court, it is ordered by the Court that the hearing proceed.

And the Court having examined said return and having in open court examined all proofs and exhibits, and having duly questioned the guardian, and being full advised in the premises finds:

That in pursuance of said order of sale, said guardian caused proper and sufficient notice of the time and place of holding said sale to be posted in three of the most public places in Tulsa County, Oklahoma, the County in which the land sold is situated, more than fifteen days before the date fixed for holding such sale, and also to be published in the Oklahoma World, a weekly newspaper printed and published in the same County, for the three weekly issued successively next before the date fixed for such sale, in which notice and in all of which the lands and tenements to be sold were accurately and properly described, and with common certainty; and that said newspaper has been ~~printe~~ published in said County for more than one year continuously and without interruption next preceeding the issue thereof containing the first publication of said notice; and that said notice was posted as aforesaid on the 15th day of July, 1910 and was published in said newspaper in the full regular editions thereof of July 14th, 21st, and 28th, 1910.

That at the time and place of holding said sale, specified in said notice, to wit: at the office of the County Judge of Craig County, Oklahoma, in Vinita on the 1st, day of August, 1910, at 2:00 in the afternoon of said day said guardian caused to be sold at private sale to the highest bidder for cash on delivery of deed, and subject to confirmation to confirmation by this court, the real estate described in said order of sale and in said notice, to wit: The east half of South east quarter of Section Three (3) Township Twenty one (21) range Thirteen (13) in Tulsa County, Oklahoma.

That at such sale, James D. Ward became the purchaser of said real estate for the sum of Twenty two hundred ($2200.00) dollars he being the highest and best bidder and said sum being the highest and best sum bid.

That the said sale was legally made and fairly conducted; that the sum bid is not disproportionate to the value of the property sold, and that a sum exceeding such bid ten per cent, can not be obtained

And the court further finds that before making such sale, said guardian made and filed herein his special additional bond with proper ^{sureties} ~~entries~~, conditioned as required by law and in the penal sum of Two Thousand Dollars as required by a previous order of this court, and which bond was duly approved by the Judge of this court and is now approved, and is on file and of record in this court.

That said guardian caused said land to be appraised by appraisers duly appointed by the court and duly qualified under the law to appraise said land, being each freeholders
