P.A. Connally (seal)

Know all men by these presents: That for and in consideration of the sum of six hundred dollars paid in cash to P.A. Connally by B. B. Jones, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, I, P.A. Connally do hereby assign to said B.B. Jones the hereto-attached oil lease and gas lease made and delivered to me on the 11th day of May, 1905 by James Hart and M.F. Dunleavy on the following lands lying in the Creek Nation in the Indian Territory, to-wit: The South half of the northwest quarter and the northwest quarter of the northwest and the southwest seven acres of the northeast quarter of the North west quarter of section "Two", Township "Eighteen", Range Twelve east. And I, said P.A. Connally do hereby convey to the said B.B. Jones, his heirs and assigns, all my estate interest and privileges in and to the said land vested in me by the said oil and gas lease. This May, 29th, 1905.

P.A. Connally
