

fully advised in the premises, doth find:

That Dixon Wiley, was a full blood Creek Indian, and duly enrolled as such; that by reason thereof, he had allotted to him the following described real estate to-wit:

SW 1/4 of SE 1/4 Section 14, and S 1/2 of NE 1/4 of section 15, and NE 1/4 of NE 1/4 section 26, township 18 N range 12 E

The court further finds that the said Dixon Wiley died intestate on the 29th day of April 1904, leaving as his sole and only heirs at law, Ben Haigie and Wayne Barnett, as his nearest relatives, all of whom are of full and legal age.

The court further finds that the said Dixon Wiley, had no issue born to him since the fourth day of March, nineteen hundred and six:

The court further finds that the said Ben Haigie and Wayne Barnett, as the sole and only heirs at law of the said, Dixon Wiley, deceased on the 22nd day of March, 1910, made and executed to James J. Mars and S.W. Brown their certain quit claim deed, conveying to said James J. Mars and S.W. Brown, all of their right, title and interest in and to the above described land; which said deed was delivered to this court pending the approval thereof.

The court further finds that the consideration of sixteen hundred ($1600.00) dollars for the above described land aforesaid, is adequate, and that fifteen hundred and two dollars (1502.00) has been paid by said James J. Mars and S.W. Brown, into this court for the said legal representative of the said Dixon Wiley allottee, deceased and the balance has been paid to petitioners

IT IS THEREFORE, here, now, by the court considered, ordered, adjudged and decreed that the deed as presented herewith be and the same is hereby approved according to Section 9, of an Act of Congress approved May 27th 1908 entitled an act for the removal of restrictions from part of the lands of the Allottees of the Five Civilized Tribes, and for Other Purposes (Public No 140) (seal)
