ORDER.

In the county court of Tulsa county, Oklahoma.

In re estate of Jennie Johnson, deceased.

ORDER.

Now, on this, the 14th day of January, 1911, this matter came on for hearing, upon the petition of Charles Page praying for an order of court approving a deed of conveyance to him executed by Sandy Johnson, and embracing the land below described. The petitioner appearing in person and by his attorney, W. D. Abbott, and the said Sandy Johnson appearing in person and the court after hearing the testimony of the witnesses as to the value of the said land and as to the value of the interest of the said Sandy Johnson therein, and being fully advised in the premises, finds:

That the allegations in the petition contained are true; that one, Jennie Johnson, was a full blood creek indian, duly enrolled as such, and received as her distributive share of the lands of the Creek Nation the following described land situate in what is now Tulsa county, Oklahoma, to-wit:

The northwest quarter of section ten (10) township nineteen (19) north, range eleven (11) east.

containing 160 acres more or less.

The court further finds that the said Jennie Johnson died while a resident of and in what is now Tulsa county, Oklahoma, on or about the 5th day of November, 1909, leaving her surviving and as all her heirs at law, one Sandy Johnson, her husband, and Emma Johnson and Mollie Johnson, her daughters, all of whom are full blood Creek Indians; that under the laws of descent and distribution of the state of Oklahoma in force at the date of the death of the said Jennie Johnson, said land descended one-third to Sandy Johnson, one-third to Emma Johnson and one-third to Mollie Johnson; that said land or any part thereof is not now occupied by, or used or claimed as a homestead by the said Sandy Johnson, Mollie Johnson, or Emma Johnson or either of them.

The court further finds that on the 14th day of January, 1911, the said Sandy Johnson, made executed and delivered to the petitioner, Charles Page, his deed of conveyance, conveying to the said Charles Page his undivided one-third interest in said land aforesaid, in consideration of the sum of $1333.33; that said consideration is adequate, and the said deed has been examined in open court.

Wherefore, it is by the court considered, ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the said deed of conveyance, above described be and the same is hereby in all respects approved and confirmed under and by virtue of an act of congress, dated May 27, 1908, entitled, "An act for the removal of restrictions from parts of the lands of the allottees of the Five Civilized Tribes; and for other purposes."

N. J. Gubser, judge.
