

Petition of Sallie McCoy for approval of her certain deed of conveyance, executed on the 28th day of December, 1910, by said Sallie McCoy to J. F. Pautler, by which deed of conveyance the said Sallie McCoy conveyed to said J. F. Pautler, all of her right, title and interest in and to the west One half of the southwest quarter of section fifteen, township seventeen north, of range 13 east, in Tulsa county, Oklahoma, and there appearing, the said petitioner, Sallie McCoy in person and by her attorneys, Riddison & Campbell, and the purchase, J. F. Pautler, also appearing in person, on the 28th day of December, 1910, the court after hearing the evidence introduced in support of said petition, finds:

That Anderson Johnson, who was a full-blood citizen of the Creek Nation of Indians, died on the 21st day of May, 1903, in that portion of the Creek Nation, now embraced in Tulsa county, Oklahoma,

That there had been allotted to said Anderson Johnson, as his share of the lands of the Creek Nation, all of the above described real estate, said lands being in that portion of the Creek nation, now embraced in Tulsa county, Oklahoma, and that he was the owner of said land at the time of his death.

That said land descended to the heirs of said Anderson Johnson under the laws of descent and distribution of the state of Arkansas.

That the said Anderson Johnson at his death left, his father, Andrew Johnson, his mother Eliza Johnson, a brother, Henry McCoy and a sister, Gilla Brown, as his sole and only heirs at law, that he left no children or descendants of children, and that the said Henry McCoy inherited and undivided one-fourth interest in and to said land.

That the said Henry McCoy died in that part of the Creek Nation of the Indian Territory which is now embraced in Tulsa county, Oklahoma, on the ___ day of October, 1907, after the state of Oklahoma was admitted into the Union, leaving as his sole and only heirs at law, his wife, Sallie McCoy, this petitioner, and two children, Nicey McCoy and Ollie McCoy, minors. That he left no other children or descendants of children, and that this petitioner claims to have inherited a one-third interest of said Henry McCoy which is an undivided one-twelfth interest in said land, but as this petitioner is informed that there is somewhat of a legal question as to whether Henry McCoy acquired any interest in said land at all.

The court further finds, that the said Henry McCoy, and all persons mentioned herein are citizens of the Creek Nation of Indians and enrolled as full-blood Indians.

The court further finds, that George Wiles, Claud Sample and Ed Baker, who were by this court duly appointed to appraise said real estate, did on the 10th day of January, 1911, file with the clerk of this court, their appraisal of said land, in which they placed the value thereof at sixteen hundred dollars.

The court further finds, that the sum of $133.00 is a fair and reasonable compensation for said Sallie McCoy's interest in said land, and that said deed should be approved.

The court further finds that said Sallie McCoy has received the sum of $133., and that she in all matters and things is satisfied therewith, and that she consents that said deed of conveyance be by this court approved and confirmed.

It is therefore by the court considered, ordered, and adjudged, that said deed of conveyance be in all matters and things approved and confirmed.

N. J. Gubser, judge.
