

Pay over the said trust estate to my said son, the same shall continue until such time as they think it is best to Pay the same over to him, but the said trust shall be terminated in any event when my said son arrives at the age of thirty years and the whole of said trust fund shall be then Paid over to him.

Should my said son, Hugh Fergus, die during minority, then I give one-third of said trust estate to each of my said daughters, Grace Rigdon and Jennie Bruen absolutely, or to the respective heirs of either or both in case either or both of my said daughters be then deceased; and I give the other one-third of said trust estate to the said George Rigdon, Howard Gray and Douglas E. Petit as trustees of my son, Robert Newland, to be held and disposed of by them according to the terms of the trust created for his benefit by the fifth Paragraph of this my will.

Should both of my said sons die during minority, then I give to my said daughters, Grace and Jennie, the whole of the Property hereinbefore given to the trustees of my said sons.

When my said sons respectively arrive at the age of twenty one years, each may make a will disposing of the trust estate hereinbefore set apart for his benefit, and such will shall be effectual and valid, anything hereinbefore contained in this my will to the contrary notwithstanding.

Seventh: I hereby appoint the said George R. Rigdon, Howard Gray and Douglas E. Petit, to be the executors of this my last will and testament and no bond shall be required of them either as executors or trustees.

I hereby give and grant unto my said executors and trustees full Power and authority to sell and convey, lease until sold or mortgage any and all real estate of which I may die seized.

I hereby revoke all former wills by me made.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal, this the 23rd day of September, one thousand nine hundred and seven.

James O'Neill. (SEAL)

We, whose names are hereunto subscribed, do certify that on the 23 day of September, 1907, James O'Neill, the testator, subscribed his name to this instrument in our Presence and in the Presence of each of us, and at the same time in our Presence and hearing declared the same to be his last will and testament, and requested us and each of us to sign our names thereto as witnesses to the execution thereof, which we hereby do, in the Presence of the testator and of each other on the said date and write opposite our names our respective Places of residence.

James M. Burke, Cartheage, Missouri.

Mable Boggess, Cartheage, Missouri.

State of Missouri, county of Jasper, SS.

In the Probate court, in vacation.

I, Edith Kerr, clerk of the Probate court of Jasper county, state of Missouri, having examined the foregoing instrument purporting to be the last will of James O'Neill, deceased, signed by the said James O'Neill, and having heard the testimony of James M. Burke and Mable Boggess, subscribing witnesses thereto, in relation to the execution of the same, do declare and adjudge said instrument to be the last will and testament of the said James O'Neill, deceased, of Jasper county, Missouri.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court at the office in Cartheage, Mo., this 2nd day of December, 1907.

(COURT SEAL)

Edith Kerr, clerk of Probate.
