

COMPARED

ASSIGNMENT.

Whereas, on the 12th day of November, 1910, by consideration of the District court in and for Tulsa county, Oklahoma, in a certain cause therein pending wherein Union Trust Company, a corporation, of Tulsa county, Oklahoma, was plaintiff, and L. F. Crosby was defendant, the said plaintiff recovered a judgment and decree of said court against the said defendant, the same being cause number 2266, and which judgment is duly entered of record in the judgment docket of said court, being for the principal sum of $1000.00 and accrued interest, and the sum of $5.65 cost and the sum of $125.00 as attorney's fees:

Now therefore, in consideration of the sum of eleven hundred seventy and forty-one hundredths dollars, $1170/41, to Union Trust Company, said plaintiff, in hand paid, the said Union Trust Company, does her by sell, assign, transfer and set-over to the First National Bank, a corporation, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, without recourse on us all the aforesaid judgment and decreed, and all its right, title, interest and equity therein and thereto, and to the cause of action merged in said decree.

In witness whereof, the said Union Trust Company, has cause these presents to be executed on its behalf by its vice-president, and the same attested by its secretary, and of the corporate seal attached, this 2nd day of February, 1911.
