ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT AND INCORPORATION of The Christopher Oil and Gas Company

Know all Men by these Presents, That the Corporators hereinafter named have this day, and by these presents, formed a Corporation under and in pursuance of an Act of Congress approved February 18th, 1901, entitled "An Act to put in force in the Indian Territory certain provisions of the Laws of Arkansas relating to Corporations and to make said provisions applicable to said Territory," which said Act provides for incorporations for manufacturing and other lawful business purposes in the Indian Territory, and in evidence thereof do hereby execute the following Articles of Incorporation:

FIRST: The name of said Corporation shall be The Christopher Oil and Gas Company

SECOND: The Corporators are W. L. Connelly, Independence, Kansas, J. P. Flanagan, Independence, Kansas,
R. W. Kellough, Tulsa, I.T.

THIRD: The place of business is to be located at Tulsa, I.T.
and its office for the transaction of business shall be in Tulsa, I.T. or at such other place as the Board of Directors may select.

FOURTH: The general nature of the business proposed to be transacted by this Corporation is to acquire, hold, deal in and dispose of in whole or in part, whenever and wherever desired, as principal, agent, trustee or otherwise, oil, oil lands and leases, gas lands and leases, gas, mines, mining claims, all kinds of real and personal property, leases and leasehold estates, and any and all products thereof or therefrom together with all machinery, appliances and materials used therewith, thereto belonging or connected therewith or therein or thereon; and to own, hold, acquire, encumber and dispose of by grant, deed, lease or otherwise any and all the above described lands and any right, title or interest therein and products thereof; and shall have the right to explore, work, develop, operate and maintain the same, to acquire, own, hold, encumber and dispose of franchises for lighting, heating, and power purposes, to establish, operate and maintain gas plants and pipe-lines for the transportation of oil and gas and other minerals; to erect buildings, plants, machinery and appliances for transporting, refining, storing and disposing of oil, gas and other products, to borrow money and execute notes and bonds, mortgages and other evidences of indebtedness and to make all contracts and do all things necessary and proper in the transaction of the above business not inconsistent with the corporation laws of Indian Territory.
