P. D. 77. P. 1. C. L. C. D.

TRANSFERABLE ONLY WITH CONSENT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

OIL AND GAS MINING LEASE

UPON LAND SELECTED FOR ALLOTMENT, CHEROKEE NATION, INDIAN TERRITORY

(Sec. 72, Act of July 1, 1902, 32 Stat., 716, 726.)

	LASE, Made and entered into, in quadruplicate, on this 21 st day of July Itaphen & Maxfield of July Intony, party of the first pund New york City New york a confination deliforgunized and existing and existing and existing and existing and existing and existing and the confination of the confinement with the blue in of Julea/, Indian Juntony, part y of the first p Savoy Oil Comp	my New York City New york a conforation duly organized and execting next we of the state of New Jersey and	sethorized to every on business in the Rudian Tenetory by coughence with the laws in new party of the second fait part inder and in nursuance of the provisions	f section 72 of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, and the regulations prescribed by the Sc
f the Interior thereunder. f the first part, for and in consideration of the royalties, covenants, stipulations, and conditions her ontained, and hereby agreed to be paid, ob	erved, and performed by the part of of the second part, the boirs, executors or administrators, ereby demise, grant, and let unto the part.	of the first part, for and in consideration of the royalties, covenants, stipulations, and conditions her successors and conditions here thereof and performed by the part of the second part, the part of the second part of the second part of the second part, the part of the second pa years from the d	te hereof, all of the oil deposits and natural gas in or under the following described tract of land, lyi eing within the Cherokee Indian Nation an	d within the Indian Territory, to-wit: The
38e/4 of the SW/4	and the SW/4 of the SEA 마이트 등 보고 있다. 그는 그리고 있는 것은 것으로 보고 있는 것이 되었다. 그는 그는 그는 그리고 있는 것이 되었다. 그는 그를 보고 있는 것이 되었다. 그는 그를 보고 있다. 하는 것이 되는 것이 있는 그리고 있는 것이 되었다. 그는 것이 되었다. 그는 것이 되었다. 그런 것이 되었다. 그런 것이 되었다. 그런 것이 되었다. 그런 것이 없는 것이 없는 것이 없는 것이 되었 ana gaga kanda sa kasanta kasanta kada kata sa kata sa Kata kata kata sa kata and the state of t
section 2	, township 20 North, range 13 mast S.C. with the right to prosp onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the postitute the criterion in computing the roy as-producing well, the lessorto have free seeto use a gas-producing well where the same relates to mining oil, but if the	the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the montalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this least lessee desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per and onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the partitute the criterion in computing the roy as-producing well, the lessor	ne month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, e the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the parthe same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this least elessee desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per any tayment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to be acceeding year, dating from the first payment.
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the institute the criterion in computing the roy is-producing well, the lessorto have free see	ne month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per and the payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  Therefore a grees and binds the part of the paid is lease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the firm and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, he term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so pa the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part.
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the pastitute the criterion in computing the roy as-producing well, the lessor	ne month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, the the use of gas for lighting and warming the residence on the premises. But failure on the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease desires to retain gas-producing privileges that the shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per and to payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  Therefore are agrees and binds the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first payment.  Therefore are the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, he term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so pay the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the seconal royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the partitute the criterion in computing the roy as-producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, et he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this least elessee desires to retain gas-producing privileges. It is shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per any tayment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. There agrees and binds the sum of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first payment, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so pay the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the seconal royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall dall royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the nestitute the criterion in computing the roy is producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, et he use of gas for lighting and warming. The cresidence on the premises. But failure on the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease desires to retain gas-producing privileges. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per and to payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. There agrees and binds the first payment. There agrees and binds the first payment the first payment are green to be paid is lease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the firm, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, he term for which this lease is to run; it being underslood and agreed that said sums of money so pay the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. of the seconal royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall dall royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  To covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands erecon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interingelect, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the institute the criterion in computing the roy is-producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, et he use of gas for lighting and warming. The cresidence on the premises. But failure on the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease desires to retain gas-producing privileges. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per and the payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to be each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  There agrees and binds the payment of the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the firm in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, he term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so pay the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the seconal royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall dall royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson.  The rovenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands ereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interingence, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion the notice to the lessee.  And proof of the default; and said part of the second part agrees to open
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the institute the criterion in computing the roy is-producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, et he use of gas for lighting and warming. The cresidence on the premises. But failure on the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease desires to retain gas-producing privileges. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per and to payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. There agrees and binds the first payment. There agrees and binds the first payment the first payment are green to be paid is lease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the firm, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, he term for which this lease is to run; it being underslood and agreed that said sums of money so pay the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. of the seconal royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall dall royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  To covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands erecon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interingelect, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the institute the criterion in computing the roy is-producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, et he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease elessee. desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per any tayment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. There agrees and binds to the second at a sums of money as follows, to wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first payment and agreed such sums paid as advanced royalty five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first payment and agreed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. The second all royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall dall royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  The covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands ereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interioraglect, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion to possible extent, unavoidable casualties
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the institute the criterion in computing the roy is-producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, et the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease lessee desires to retain gas-producing privileges. shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per any transport to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment agrees and binds the sum of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the firm and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the firm the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second all royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall dall royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  To covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands ereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Intering leet, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion are notice to the lessee and proof of the default; and said part of the second part agrees to open the said land, and to see the said term by the said part or to whomsoeyer shall be lawfully entitled thereto, and not to remove therefruing the said term by the said part of the second part, but said buildings and improvements shall onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the nestitute the criterion in computing the roy as producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, et the use of gas for lighting and warming
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the institute the criterion in computing the roy is producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, et he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the pare he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease lessee. desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per and to payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to be and but the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  There agrees and binds the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  There agrees and binds the first payment agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands are royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall dall royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson.  The first payment to be first payment agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands are rowalties to exercise diligence in
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the nestitute the criterion in computing the roy is-producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, et he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease essee. desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per any tayment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. There agrees and binds to the made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment agrees and binds to the first payment. There agrees and binds to the fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first payment in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, he term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so pay the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second all royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall dall royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  To covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands ereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interiorage of the second within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion to possible extent, unavoidable casualties excepted; to commit no waste upon the said land, and to suppose the said term by the said part of the consideration for this lease, in addition to the other consideration of the said term by the said part of the consideration for this lease, in addition to the other consideration for the said term by the said
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the institute the criterion in computing the roy is-producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, et he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the pare he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease lessee. desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per and to payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to be and but the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  There agrees and binds the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  There agrees and binds the first payment agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands are royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall dall royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson.  The first payment to be first payment agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands are rowalties to exercise diligence in
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the roy as-producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, are the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per and the payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment agrees and binds the same agrees and for the third and fourth years; and Seventy five cents per acre per annum, in advance, he term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so pay the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the seconal royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson.  To covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands ereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interioraglect, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion is notice to the lessee and proof of the default; and said part of the second part agrees to ope it possible extent, unavoidable casualties excepted; to commit no waste upon the said land, and to sure of the first part or to whomseever shall be lawfully entitled thereto, and not to remove therefore the said term by the said part of the consideration for this lease, in addition to the other considers, boiler-houses, pipe lines, pumping and drilling outfits, tanks, engines, and machinery, and the casin perty of the
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the partitute the criterion in computing the roy as-producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, et the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease lessee. desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall not work a forfeiture of this lease estates to retain gas-producing privileges. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per any payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. Ther agrees and binds the first payment. Ther agrees and binds the first payment. There agrees and binds the first payment.  There agrees and binds the first payment.
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the roy as-producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the montality; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, ee the use of gas for lighting and warming
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the roy as-producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the montality; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, et e the use of gas for lighting and warming the residence on the premises. But failure on the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease tessee. desires to retain gas-producing privileges. It shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per and to payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to the first of ench succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The agrees and binds the payment of the same and by the sum of money as follows, to wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first payment. The same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. Of the second a royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall day all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  The covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands ereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interingence to the lessee. and proof of the default; and said part. Of the second part agrees to ope to possible extent, unavoidable casualties excepted; to commit no waste upon the said land, and to suffice the said term by the said part. Of the second part, but said buildings and improvements shall of the owner of the land as a part of the consideration for this lease, in addition to the other considers, boiler-houses, pipe lines, pumping and drilling outfits, tanks, engines, and machinery, and the casin perty of the said part. Of the second part, and may be removed at any time before the expiration of the
onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the institute the criterion in computing the roy is producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the montality; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, ee the use of gas for lighting and warming
conth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the roy as-producing well, the lessor	the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month alty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royally, the ethe use of gas for lighting and warming the part he same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease tessee. desires to retain gas-producing privileges that all pay a royalty of fifty dollars per any to payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment to the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  There agrees and binds that the payment of the first payment.  There agrees and binds that the payment of the first payment.  There agrees and binds that the payment of the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, he term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so pay the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson.  The revenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands ereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior are notice to the lessee and proof of the default; and said part of the second part agrees to ope to possible extent, unavoidable casualties excepted; to commit no waste upon the said land, and to such a such part of the said term by the said part of the second part, and may be removed and not to remove therefrough the said term by the said part of the second part, and may be removed at any time before the expiration of the sease part and little part of the second part,
conth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the roy as-producing well, the lessor	is month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month along in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royally, at the use of gas for lighting and warming
conth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the roy as-producing well, the lessor	and month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month along in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royally, at the use of gas for lighting and warming
anonth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the roy as-producing well, the lessor	is month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month along in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royally, at the use of gas for lighting and warming