C.O UP

TRANSFERABLE ONLY WITH CONSENT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

OIL AND GAS MINING LEASE

PON LAND SELECTED FOR ALLOTMENT, CHEROKEE NATION, INDIAN TERRITORY

(Sec. 72, Act of July 1, 1902, 32 Stat., 716, 726.)

| A. D. 1905, by and between Wil   | ASC, Made and entered into, in quadruplicate, on this 16th day of March  |  |
|--|--|--|
| A. D. 130 X, by and between  | 10:3- 0 0 5 d 3-   | beer var var var sangage va  |
| parameter and the second secon | on famy of Collinarile Julian Territory Deor foration duly organization, and duly authorized to carry on Dismiss in the Julian Sentory by many 18, 1901, (31 State, 294)   | irst part, a   |
| The Shownee Oil off as C   | om fany of Collineirle Indian Senitory Deor foration duly organiza   | land   |
| risting under the laws of the Indian   | Secretary and duly authorized to carry on blesuiss in the Julius Secretary by  | ing flian  |
| the let of Congress approved Feb   | wary 18, 1901, (31 State, 294)   | 0  |
| 0 00   |  | and the second of the second o |
|  | part of the  |  |
| under and in pursuance of the provisions of  | section 72 of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, and the regulations prescribed by the   | he Secreta   |
| of the Interior thereunder.  | source 12 of suc at congress approved bary 1, 1992, and the regulations prescribed by t  | ne pecieta   |
|  | he first part, for and in consideration of the royalties, covenants, stimulations, and condition   | s hereinaf   |
| ontained, and hereby agreed to be paid, obser  | the first part, for and in consideration of the royalties, covenants, stipulations, and condition wed, and performed by the part of the second part, beire, executors of adjusting the second part, to the sec | tore. dos.   |
| hereby demise, grant, and let unto the part.   | of the second part, it here, encourage or administrators, for the term of Fifteen  | 151  |
| years from the date  | hereof, all of the oil deposits and natural gas in or under the following described tract of lan   | d. lying a   |
|  | vithin the Indian Territory, to-wit: The   | -1-76  |
|  |  |  |
| W/2 of NE/4  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| Berger (1997) - De film i Merceller (1997) - Sterre (1997) - Sterre (1997) - Sterre (1997) - Sterre (1997) - SGennettenne (1997) - Sterre (1997)   |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| والموقع الأراقي المراقع في المراقع المالمستقر والمراقع المراقع المراقع المراقع المراقع المراقع والمراقع المراقع المراقع المراقع المراقع المراقع المر   | ter digital and the production of the first of the second for the  | Balaka ing   |
| of section Sixteen (16)  | , township Twenty-one (21) north range Thirteen (13) east  |  |
| of the Indian Meridian, and containing   | Eightty (10) 0 acres, more or less, with the right to  | nrosnect fo  |
| extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oi   | and natural gas, and to occupy and use so much only of the surface of said land as may b   | e reasonal   |
| necessary to carry on the work of prospecting f  | or, extracting, piping, storing, refining, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also   | the right  |
| shtoin from wells or other sources on said land  | by meaning fried line and the second of the  | the right  |
| biain from Wells or other sources on said land   | by means of pipe lines or otherwise, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, a   | nd includi   |
| this further the right to use such on and halpri   |  |  |
| In consideration of which the nort of  | the second part hosely agreed and hinds tall the lecture and hinds tall  |  |
| In consideration of which the part of the  | Il gas as fuel so far as it is necessary to the prosecution of said operations. It is necessary to the second part hereby agrees and binds trail the second part hereby agrees are second part hereby agrees and binds trail the second part hereby agrees are second part hereby agrees and binds trail the second part hereby agrees are second part hereby agrees and binds trail the second part hereby agrees are second part hereby agrees and binds trail the second part hereby agrees agree a | y or cause   |
| be paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten   | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and   | if the part  |
| be paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of tendo not, before the tenth day of the month succe  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and reding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value  | if the partthereof sh  |
| be paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of tendo not, before the tenth day of the month succefinally be determined under the direction of the  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, andleding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the valueSecretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty acc  | if the partthereof shuing for a  |
| be paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of tendo not, before the tenth day of the month succefinally be determined under the direction of themonth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accomonth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the  | if the partthereof shuing for amonth sh  |
| be paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of tendo not, before the tenth day of the month succefinally be determined under the direction of themonth on or before the twenty-fifth day of theconglitute the criterion in computing the royalt  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accomments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one tradited and fifty dellers roy  | if the partithereof shouing for amonth shoultv. on ea  |
| the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succe finally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the lesser to have free thessee   | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value is Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty according, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transfer of fifty dellers roy the use of gas for lighting and warming the case of gas for  | if the partthereof shuing for amonth shalty, on eae part of tlease so  |
| to paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinfinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas-producing well, the lesson before the twenty-fifth day of the lessee  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty acciments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transfer of the fifty dellers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this can desired to retain gas producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars pe  | thereof she using for a month shalty, on ea e part of the lease so it annum  |
| the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinfinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas-producing well, the lessor. To have free the lessee. To use a gas-producing well where the as the same relates to mining oil, but if the less cach gas producing well not utilized, the first p  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value is Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accomenth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one handled that fifty dellars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea, desires to retain gas producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dellars per around to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of or   | thereof she using for a month shalty, on ea e part of the lease so it annum  |
| the paid to the lessor, as royally the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinfinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas producing well, the lessor to have free the lesser to use a gas-producing well where the as the same relates to mining oil, but if the less cach gas producing well not utilized, the first patheres for such wells to be made in advance  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value is Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accoments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred that fifty dellers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea, desires to retain ges producing privileges. Shall not work a forfeiture of the appear to become due and to be made within thirty days from the direct of the discovery of great the first of each succeeding your, dating from the first payment.  | if the partthereof shuing for amonth shalty, on eae part of tlease sor annums, paymer  |
| the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succe finally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas producing well, the lessor to have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor gas producing well not utilized, the first patherentes for such wells to be made in advance.  And the part of the second part furth   | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and reding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accommonth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transited and fifty dellars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same desires to retain gas producing privileges. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dellars pe appears to become due and to be made within thirty days from the discovery of gas at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  | if the partthereof shuing for amonth shalty, on eae part of tlease sor annums, paymer  |
| the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succe finally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas producing well, the lessor to have free the lessee to have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have for such yells to be made in edvance And the part. In the second part furth lessor, as advanced annual royalty on this lessor  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and reding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accoments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transited and fifty dellers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming tresidence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea. I desired to relain gas producing privileges whell pay a royalty of fifty dellars no approant to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.   | if the partthereof shuing for amonth shalty, on eae part of tlease so ir annums, paymer  |
| the paid to the lessor, as royally the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinfinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royall gas-producing well, the lessor. To have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the less as the same relates to mining oil, but if the less as the same relates to mining oil, but if the less as the same relates to mining oil, but if the less as the same relates to mining oil, but if the less as the same relates to mining oil, but if the less as the same relates to mining oil, but if the less as the same relates to mining oil, but if the less as the same relates to mining oil, but if the less as the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor. And the part where the second part furth lessor. And the part where the second part furth lessor. As advanced annual royalty on this second years; Thirty cents per acre per annual fifth and each succeeding year thereafter of the  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accounts succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transfer of the fifty delless roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this ended to be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same desires to retain gas producing privileges the shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per ayment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.   | if the part thereof shoung for a month should be a part of the account of the account of the account of the first an ance, for the so paid should sho |
| the paid to the lessor, as royally the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinfinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas-producing well, the lessor. — to have free the sast he same relates to mining oil, but if the lesses have producing well not utilized, the first pubercular for such wells to be made in advance And the part — of the second part furth lessor. — as advanced annual royalty on this is second years; Thirty cents per acre per annum fifth and each succeeding year thereafter of the be a credit on the stipulated royalties should the   | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value is Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty account on the succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transfer of the fifty dellers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same desires to retain gas producing privileges the shall pay a royalty of fifty dellars per ayment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gast the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment, and the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per annum, in advance, for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money as some exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the   | if the part thereof shoung for a month should be a constant of the constant of the first at an ance, for the second be second by the second be second by the second be second by the sec |
| he paid to the lessor, as royally the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt are producing well, the lessor to have free the sessee to use a gas-producing well where the as the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesson are producing well not utilized, the first puberentes for such wells to be made in advance.  And the part of the second part furth essor as advanced annual royalty on this lesson, as advanced annual royalty on this lesson years; Thirty cents per acre per annualith and each succeeding year thereafter of the be a credit on the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual   | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accomments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transfer and fifty dellers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same desires to retain gas producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per a syment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this eage, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money as same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease  | if the part thereof sh uing for a month sh alty, on en e part of i lease so r annum paid to t the first a anner, for t so paid sh second b second b  |
| do not, before the tenth day of the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas producing well, the lesson to use a gas-producing well where the as the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesson succeeding well not utilized, the first puberentes for such wells to be made in advance.  And the part of the second part furth the second years; Thirty cents per acre per annum fifth and each succeeding year thereafter of the bear credit on the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual option of the lesson, be null and void, and apption of the lesson, be null and void, and apption of the lesson, be null and void, and apption of the lesson  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value escretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accommonth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transfer and fifty dellers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on it same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same desires to retain gas producing privileges. shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars ne anyment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  er agrees and binds the state of the discovery of gas, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in adverm for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money as more exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. The royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.   | if the part thereof sh using for a month sh alty, on ea e part of t lease so r annum s, paymer  paid to t the first as ance, for t so paid sh second pa shall, at t  |
| to paid to the lessor, as royally the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royall gas producing well, the lessor to have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the less such as producing well not utilized, the first purpose the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor as producing well not utilized, the first purpose for such wells to be made in advance. And the part of the second part furthesesor, as advanced annual royalty on this lessor, as advanced annual royalty on this lessor are did not the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual royalties of the lessor, be null and void, and option of the lessor, be null and void, and on the part 4 of the second part further controls.   | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and reding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accoments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transited and fifty dellars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same, desired to relain gas producing privileges. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dellars no ayment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment, at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment, at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment, at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in adverse of same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  | if the part thereof shung for a month shalty, on ene part of i lease so rannums, paymer paid to t the first a ance, for t so paid sh second p shall, at t ands cover   |
| to paid to the lessor, as royally the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas producing well, the lessor to have free the essee to use a gas-producing well where the as the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor has producing well not utilized, the first publication of the part. of the second part furthessor, as advanced annual royalty on this second years; Thirty cents per acre per annualith and each succeeding year thereafter of the nearest of the lessor, be null and void, and a poption of the lessor, be null and void, and the part. of the second part further coy this lease, and to deill at least one well there by this lease, and to deill at least one well there are the second part further coy this lease, and to deill at least one well there   | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and reding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accoments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transited and fifty dellars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming tresidence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea. I desired to relain gas producing privileges that have a royalty of fifty dellars no expensant to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gast the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  | if the part thereof shauing for a month shalty, on ea e part of i lease so remains, paymer paid to the first a ance, for the so paid shaue second p shall, at the thereof a transfer over the second p shall, at the trans cover the second p shall, at the second p shall p sh |
| not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the revall as producing well, the lesson to have free the sessee to have free the sessee to use a gas-producing well where the set the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesson have for such wells to be made in edvance. And the part of the second part furtherestor for such wells to be made in edvanced annual royalty on this second years; Thirty cents per acre per annualith and each succeeding year thereafter of the nearest or the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual option of the lesson, be null and void, and a the part of the second part further coy this lease, and to deill at least one well there we hould the part  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accommonth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transferd and fifty dellars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming tresidence on the premises. But failure on it same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same, desires to retain ges producing privileges the shall pay a royalty of fifty dellars ne argument to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment to pay or cause to be ease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for , in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money as same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  The first of the bond by the Secretary of the less, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the disc   | if the part thereof shruing for a month shalty, one an e part of i lease so a annum s, paymen paid to t the first a ance, for the second p shall, at the first and sover the so paid shall, at the first and sover the second p shall, at the second p shall |
| not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt start that the criterion is computing the royalt start that the criterion is the same relates to mining oil, but if the less the same relates to mining oil, but if the less that the part of the second part further constant that the part of the second part further constant that the part of the second part further constant that the part of the second part further constant that the part of the second part further constant that the part of the second part further constant that the part of the second part further constant that the constant part full the part of the second part further constant the constant part full the second par | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of esceretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accimenth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one trained and fifty delless roy he use of gas for lighting and warming tree to be eased on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea, desires to retain gas producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dellars per ayment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gast the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first year of the year of the lease of the land of the succeeding year.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first year o | if the part thereof sh using for a month shalty, on en en e part of i lease so remains, paymer paid to the first a mance, for the second phase secon |
| not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt as producing well, the lesson to have free the seed of the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesson here producing well not utilized, the first part of the second part furthers for such wells to be made in advance And the part of the second part furtheseson, as advanced annual royalty on this lescond years; Thirty cents per acre per annumith and each succeeding year thereafter of the sea credit on the stipulated royalties should the each correct to pay such advanced annual option of the lesson, be null and void, and the part of the second part further coy this lease, and to deall at least one well there here the part of the second part further coy this lease, and to deall at least one well there here the part of the second part with neglectors, be the second part with neglectors, be the second part with the part of the second part with the lesson in a workmanlike manner to the fullest parts and to be committed upon the portion in the parts of the second part with the lesson in a workmanlike manner to the fullest pays to be committed upon the portion in the second part with the pays to be committed upon the portion in the second part with the pays to be committed upon the portion in the second part with the pays to be committed upon the portion in the second part with the pays to be committed upon the portion in the second part with the pays to be committed upon the portion in the second part with the pays to be committed upon the portion in the second part with the pays to be committed upon the portion in the second part with the pays the second pays the  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and reding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value on the succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transition of fifty dellers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transition of fifty dellers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming trained to the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same desires to retain gas producing privileges.  The payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for a grees and binds.  The payment to pay or cause to be ease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in adverse man, in the discovery of the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in adverse same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part.  The payment of the part of the part of the part of the part of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the leet, or refuse to drift at least one well within | if the part thereof shuning for a month shalty, one en e part of i lease so r annum s, paymer paid to it the first a ance, for t so paid sh second p shall, at the distriction of the operate t to suffer the premise of |
| not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt as producing well, the lesson to have free the essee to have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the less the same relates to mining oil, but if the less have go producing well not utilized, the first phenester for such wells to be made in advance.  And the part of the second part furthers or a succeeding year thereafter of the second years; Thirty cents per acre per annumith and each succeeding year thereafter of the sea or edit on the stipulated royalties should the sea or edit on the stipulated royalties should the seator of the lesson, be null and void, and applied to the second part further contains the part of the second part further contains a workmanlike manner to the fullest processes, be decreased to be committed upon the portion in the part of the second part further the part of the second part further contains a workmanlike manner to the fullest process to be committed upon the portion in the part of the second part further contains and the termination of this lease to the part of the second part further contains a workmanlike manner to the fullest process to be committed upon the portion in the part of the second part further contains a workmanlike manner to the fullest process to be committed upon the portion in the part of the second part further contains a workmanlike manner to the fullest process to be committed upon the portion in the part of the second part further contains a second part further cont            | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and reding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accomonth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transité and fifty dellers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea. desired to rotain gas producing privileges. shall pay a royalty of fifty dellars per ayment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment, at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment, at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment, at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment, at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment, at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment, at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment, at the first payment at the first gas follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for , in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in adverse which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money e same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part year of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  Ovenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the low within twelve months from the date of the approval of th | if the part thereof shungs for a month shalty, on er e part of lease so rannum s, paymer paid to the first a ance, for the second p shall, at a mode cover to suffer the premise the premise the premise refrom a month of the part of the |
| not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt as producing well, the lesson to have free the sessee to have free the sessee to use a gas-producing well where the is the same relates to mining oil, but if the less before such wells to be made in educance and the part   | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and reding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accomonth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transited and fifty dellars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming tresidence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea. I desired to relain gas producing privileges the late of the discovery of gas at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the date of the succeeding from the date of the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  The first part of the first part of the default; and said part of the bond by the Secretary of the leet, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may; in the discretion the lesser and proof of the default; and said part of the second  | if the part thereof shally one are part of lease so remains, paymer paid to the first a ance, for the second p shall, at a to suffer the preminer of the preminer a shall remains a shall rema |
| not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt as producing well, the lesson to have free the sessee to have free the sessee to use a gas-producing well where the is the same relates to mining oil, but if the less been producing well not utilized, the first perfector such wells to be made in advance. And the part wells to be made in advance and the part of the second part furtherson, as advanced annual royalty on this lesson, as advanced annual royalty on this less a credit on the stipulated royalties should the acredit on the stipulated royalties should the lesson, be null and void, and a prior of the lesson, be null and void, and a credit on the stipulated royalties should the lesson, be null and void, and a prior of the second part further contains the second part further the second part further the second part further to be committed upon the portion in a workmanlike manner to the fullest property be declared rull and void, with due to the second part further to the                               | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and reding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accomonth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transition and fifty dollars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming tresidence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea. I desired to relain ges producing privileges that he first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment is a the first payment.  The first payment is a first payment in the first payment.  The first payment is a first payment in the first payment is a first payment in the first payment in the first payment is a first payment in the first payment in the first payment is a first payment in the first payment in the first payment in the first payment in the first payment i | if the part thereof shally, on er month shally, on er e part of i lease so remains, paymer paid to the first a ance, for the second p shall, at it operate to suffer the premiue refrom a thall remainsideration sufferential the premium and solventhall remainsiderations.   |
| to paid to the lessor, as royally the sum of ten lo not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt as producing well, the lessor. To have free the sessee. To use a gas-producing well where the is the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have gas producing well not utilized, the first perfector such wells to be made in advance. And the part of the second part furtheressor. As advanced annual royalty on this lessor wells to be made in advanced annual option of the succeeding year thereafter of the nearest of the lessor. The part of the second part further control of the lessor, be null and void, and a prior of the lessor, be null and void, and a control of the second part further control of the seco | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and beding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil fluctuates, and to so pay the royalty accommonth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one transferd and fifty dollars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming tresidence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same. I desired to retain ges producing privileges the shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars not at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first products of money as follows, to wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, so as me exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  The products of the second part and proof of the default; and said part of the second part agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the low within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the lest, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may; in the discretion to the lessee to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may; in the discretion to the lessee to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease, and in the recent part of the consideration  | if the part thereof shall read to the first a annum s, paymen paid to the first a ance, for the part of the first a ance, for the paid shall, at the first a and cover the preminer of the part of the par |
| not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt as producing well, the lesson to have free the seed to use a gas-producing well where the is the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesson have free the seed gas producing well not utilized, the first producing the producing well not utilized, the first producing the second part furthers as advanced annual royalty on this lesson, as advanced annual royalties should the earlier of the second part further control of the lesson, be null and void, and a price of the second part further control to the first producing the second part further control to the secon | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and reding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accommonth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hended and fifty dollars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first pay a royalty of fifty dollars per at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The same state of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The same state of the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in adverterm for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money exame exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  The same exceeds to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the loon within twelve mouths from the data of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the less, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretary of the less to drill and as a part of the consideration for this lease, in addition to  | if the part thereof shungs of a month shalty, on each eart of i lease so remains, paymer paid to it the first a ance, for it so paid she second p shall, at it operate it to suffer the premia erefrom a shall remansideratio casing of the operation of suffer the premia erefrom a shall remansideration of suffer the premia erefrom a shall remansideration of suffer the operate it of suffer the premia erefrom a shall remansideration of suffer the premiare erefrom a shall remain erefrom a shall remansideration of suffer the premiare erefrom a shall remain erefrom erefro |
| not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of the second constitute the same relates to mining oil, but if the less case gas producing well not utilized, the first part of the second part furthers and the part of the second part furthers are a credit on the stipulated royalities should the constitute of the second part further constitute the constitution of the constit | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accomonth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one handled and fifty dollars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same desires to retain goe producing privileges.  The payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of great the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The same sums of money as follows, to wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money as same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  The payment of the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  The payment of the lessor may first the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the lest of the same and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the low  | if the part thereof shungs for a month shalty, on each e part of i lease so rangum s, paymer paid to the first a ance, for the second p, shall, at it operate to suffer the premise erefrom a thall remainsideratio casing of tion of six corany, of por any of the premise of the premise erefrom a control of six corany, or program of the premise erefrom a control of six corany of the premise erefrom a control of six corany of the premise erefrom a control of six corany of the premise erefrom a control of six corany of the premise erefrom a control of six corany of the premise erefrom a control of six corany of the part of the premise erefrom a corany of the part o |
| the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinfinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas producing well, the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the second part furthered as a credit on the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual option of the lessor have a credit on the stipulated royalties should the part of the second part furthered by this lease, and to deill at least one well there also the part of the second part furthered by this lease, and to deill at least one well there was to be committed upon the portion in have to be committed upon the portion in have to be committed upon the protion in have the protion in have to be committed upon the protion in have the | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and reding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accommonth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hended and fifty dollars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first pay a royalty of fifty dollars per at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The same state of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The same state of the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in adverterm for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money exame exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  The same exceeds to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the loon within twelve mouths from the data of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the less, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretary of the less to drill and as a part of the consideration for this lease, in addition to  | if the part thereof she using for a month shalty, on ea e part of the lease so remains, paymer paid to the first at ance, for the second passed of the first at and covernation, and the premise refrom an hall remains deration of six control, no or any other control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control, or any other the premise refrom a casing of a control and a control and a control a control and a contr |
| do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas producing well, the lessor to have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free to be made in educance And the part. The part was advanced annual royalty on this lessor, as advanced annual royalty on the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual royalty of the second part further control to the lessor, be null and void, and the part of the second part further the same in a workmanlike manner to the fullest part of the termination of this lease to the part waste to be committed upon the portion in house the termination of this lease to the part of said land and become the property of the rein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, if the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accomonth succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one braided and fifty dellers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming   | if the part thereof she wing for a month shalty, on ea e part of the lease so it amounts, paymer paid to the first and ance, for the second pashall, at the first and second pashall, at the trior, and the premise erefrom an analysis of the premise erefrom and analysis of the premise casing of a control, nor any oth water about the pash and the premise erefrom and the premise the premise erefrom and the premise erefrom the premise erefrom and the premise erefr |
| do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas producing well, the lesson to have free the seese   | per cent. of the value, on the lensed premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the lensed premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accoments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the yr and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one treated and fifty dellars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this man cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this man desired to ratein gos producing privileges.  Aball pay a royalty of fifty dellars per asyment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the dute of the discovery of great the first of each succeeding your dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding your dating from the first payment.  The same and binds. The first payment.  The same so money as follows, to wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money as an exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. Of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  The payment is a said and provided the same becomes due and payable, then this lease overants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the least of the well-within twelve mouths from the date of the sapproval of the bond by the Secretary of the least of the said term by the said part. Of the second part, and may be removed at any time before the expiration of the said term by the said part. Of the second part, but said buildings and improveme | if the partithereof she wing for a month shalty, on ea e part of i lease so it annum. I had to the first an ance, for the second partition of the premise erefrom an ansideration casing of a tion of six control, nor any other abe direct as the direct and the premise erefrom an ansideration of six control, nor any other about the direct and the direct |
| the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinfinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas producing well, the lessor to use a gas-producing well where the as the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have gas producing well not utilized, the first pubercatter for such wells to be made in advance.  And the part of the second part furth lessor as advanced annual royalty on this lessor as advanced annual royalty on this lessor are ger annumifith and each succeeding year thereafter of the bear credit on the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual option of the lessor bear of the second part further conditions the part of the second part further conditions the part of the second part further conditions in a workmanlike manner to the fullest payment to be committed upon the portion in the property of the refuse of the second part further conditions of the lessor of the second part further conditions of the second part furt | per cent. of the value, on the lensed premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the lensed premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accoments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one insufed and fifty dellars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same desires to retain goe producing privileges.  The shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per agree to retain goe producing privileges.  The shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per agrees and binds. Itself the province of the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first of the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the mind the first part of the first payment.  The first part of the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the his lease state of the second payment of the second payment.  The result of the first payment of the first payment of the second payment of th | if the part thereof she wing for a month shalty, on ea e part of the lease so remains, paymer paid to the first at ance, for the so paid she second part of the premiser of the premiser from an ansideration casing of a control, nor any other about the direct signment.  |
| do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalizate producing well, the lesson to use a gas-producing well where the as the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesson are producing well not utilized, the first producing the part of the second part furthers as advanced annual royalty on this lesson, as advanced annual royalty on this lesson to the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual option of the lesson, be null and void, and are to the lesson, but there are the stipulated royalties are the producing the respectively. The part of the second part further control to the lesson of the lesson well there are not produced an area of the second part further control to be committed upon the portion in the property of the second part further control to be committed upon the portion in the property of the second part further control to be committed upon the protion in the property of the second part of said land and become the property of the part of said land and become the property of the remainster to the termination of the lesse; that the part of said land and become the property of the remain the property of the second part of said land and become the property of the remain the property of the second part of said land and become the property of the remain the property of the second part of said land and become the property of the remain the property of the second part of said land and become the property of the remain the property of the second part of said land and become the property of the second and agreed or indirectly made without the written consent ransfer  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accoments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one treated and fifty dollars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea desires to retain ges producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per agrees and binds. Let the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment to reasonable to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of great the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The same accounts of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for his lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money as same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor—overnants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the least or refuse to drift at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion to the lessee—and proof of the default; and said part—of the bond by the Secretary of the lector of the said term by the said part—of the second part, and may be removed at any time before the expiration for this lease, in addition to the other coordinates of the said term by the said part.—of the second part, and may be removed at any time before the expiration of the least part.—of the second part, and may be remov | if the part thereof shum of a same o |
| do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of have free the constitute the criterion in computing the royality of have free the sas producing well not utilized, the first publication of the second part furthelessor, as advanced annual royalty on this lessor, as advanced annual royalty on this lessor, as advanced annual royalty on this lessor of the second years; Thirty cents per acre per annumifith and each succeeding year thereafter of the bear credit on the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual option of the lessor, be null and void, and a price of the second part further constituted the part of the second part further constituted the part of the second part further constituted the part of the second part full, and part of said land and become the property of the refuse of the committed upon the portion in and the said land and become the property of the refuse that the constitution of the lesse; that allow any intoxicating liquors to be sold or go our pose than that authorized in this lease, and the oil-bearing horizon.  And it is mutually understood and agreed or indirectly made without the written consent ransfer made or attempted without such consent ransfer made or attempted without                              | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accoments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one treatment and fifty dellars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea, desires to retain gee producing privileges. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars no agrees and binds. The state of the second payment within thirty days from the date of the discovery of great the first of each succeeding year, deting from the date of the discovery of great the first of each succeeding year, deting from the date of the discovery of great the first of each succeeding year, deting from the date, payment.  The state of the second payments of the discovery of great the first of the discovery of great the first of each succeeding year, deting from the date, payment.  The state of the second payments are greated and succeeding year, deting from the date, payment.  The state of the second succeeding year, deting from the date, payment for the second payment, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the true of the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the royalty for the the first part of the state, and the second payment for the lease of the second payment for the lease of the second payment for the second payment for the second payment for the second pay | if the part thereof shung for a month shalty, on each e part of i lease so rangum s, paymer paid to the first a ance, for the second p shall, at the first and second p shall, at the operate to suffer the premise erefrom a shall remainsideration of six control, n or any other water about the premise erefrom a significant of the premise erefrom a shall remainsideration of six control, n or any other water about the premise erefrom a significant of six control, n or any other about the premise erefrom a significant the premise erefrom a shall remainsideration or any other about the premise erefrom a control, n or any other about the premise erefrom a control, n or any other about the premise erefrom a control, n or any other about the premise erefrom a control, n or any other about the premise erefrom a control of the control of the premise erefrom a control of the premise erefrom  |
| the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinfinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt as producing well, the lessor to have free the seen. To use a gas-producing well where the as the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor has producing well not utilized, the first patherenter for such wells to be made in advance.  And the part of the second part furthelessor, as advanced annual royalty on this lessor as a dvanced annual royalty on this lessor of the succeeding year thereafter of the bear credit on the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual option of the lessor, be null and void, and the part of the second part further control to the computer of the second part further control to the computer of the second part further control to the computer of the second part further control to the computer of the second part further control to the computer of the second part further control to the computer of the second part further control to the computer of the second part further control to the computer of the second part further control to the computer of the second part further control to the computer of the second part further control to the second part of said land and become the property of the second part of said land and become the property of the second part further control to the second part further control to the second part of said land and become the property of the second part further control to t | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accoments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one treated and fifty dollars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea desires to retain ges producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per agrees and binds. Let the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment to reasonable to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of great the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The same accounts of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for his lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money as same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor—overnants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the least or refuse to drift at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion to the lessee—and proof of the default; and said part—of the bond by the Secretary of the lector of the said term by the said part—of the second part, and may be removed at any time before the expiration for this lease, in addition to the other coordinates of the said term by the said part.—of the second part, and may be removed at any time before the expiration of the least part.—of the second part, and may be remov | if the part thereof she wing for a month shalty, on ea e part of the lease so remains, paymer paid to the first at ance, for the second passed of the first at ance, for the second passed of the first at and covernation, and the premise refrom an aball remains of the premise refrom an analyst the premise refront and the premise refresh refresh refresh refresh refresh refresh refresh refresh refresh r |
| the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinfinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas producing well, the lessor to have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor has producing well not utilized, the first pathereafter for such wells to be made in advance. And the part of the second part furthereafter for such wells to be made in advance and the part of the second years; Thirty cents per acre per annumifith and each succeeding year thereafter of the bear credit on the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual option of the lessor, be null and void, and the part of the second part further constituted the part of said land and become the property of the refuse to be committed upon the pertion in the part of said land and become the property of the refuse of the second part further consent and the said land and become the property of the refuse the property of the second part further consent and the said part of the second and agreed or indirectly made without the written consent ransfer made or attempted without such consent part of the second part of the second part further consent ransfer made or attempted without such consent parts of the second part of the  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accoments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one interior and fifty dollars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this day after the same exceed such sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, in advance, for the thing and forthy years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance we same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part, of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease overants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the low of this tender to drill at least one well within the time stated, this bear may, in the disco | if the part thereof she using for a month shalty, on ea e part of the lease so a samumar, paid to the first at ance, for the second pashall, at the first at ands covernaterior, metion of the premise erefrom a hall remains a single of six control, nor any other water about the payment operation of six control, and other payment operation of the payment of the payme |
| the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succe finally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas producing well, the lessor to have free the same relates to mining oil, but it the lessor the same relates to mining oil, but it the lessor the rought well not utilized, the first petheroafter for such wells to be made in edvance. And the part of the second part furthers as a divanced annual royalty on this second years; Thirty cents per acre per annumifith and each succeeding year thereafter of the be a credit on the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual option of the lessor, be null and void, and a triple of the second part further control the part of the second part further control the part of the second part fail, nog Secretary, be declared null and void, with due to the committed upon the portion in a workmanlike manner to the fullest property of herein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, it dry or exhausted wells, shall remain the property of herein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, it dry or exhausted wells, shall remain the property of herein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, it dry or exhausted wells, shall remain the property of herein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, it dry or exhausted wells, shall remain the property of herein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, it dry or exhausted wells, shall remain the property of herein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, it dry or exhausted wells, shall remain the property of herein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, it dry or exhausted wells, shall remain the property of herein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, it dry or exhausted wells, shall remain the property of herein specified and and become the property of herein specified and or in the second part of the second part of said royalties.  And the said part of the se | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accoments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one branch and sity solliers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the created of each year, one branch and sity solliers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the created of each year, one branch and sity solliers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the creates are called to be made within thirty days from the date of this days mant to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gast the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The succeeding year is a succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The succeeding year is a succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The succeeding year is a succeeding year and payment of the payment. The succeeding year is a succeeding year and payment of the succeeding year is a succeeding year and payment of the succeeding year and year and year  | if the partithereof shoung for an month shalty, on ease part of i lease so it ease so it ease so it ease so paid to the first an ance, for the premise second properties of the premise erefrom an analysis ereform an ender the premise erefrom an ender the premise erefrom an ender the premise erefrom an another the premise erefrom an ender the  |
| the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas producing well, the lessor to use a gas-producing well where the as the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor are producing well not utilized, the first pathereaftes for such wells to be made in advance.  And the part of the second part furth lessor as advanced annual royalty on this lessor are per annumfifth and each succeeding year thereafter of the be a credit on the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual option of the lessor be used to deller lessor well there by this lease, and to deller lessor well there should the part of the second part further control to the stipulated royalties should the part of the second part further control to the stipulated royalties should the part of the second part further control to the second  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accuments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one manded and fifty dollers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea, desires to retain goe producing privileges.  — chall pay a royalty of fifty dollers to same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea, desires to retain goe producing privileges.  — chall pay a royalty of fifty dollers to gament the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first pay a royalty of fifty dollers to gament to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of great at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first pay and the description of the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in adverm for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money as ame exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part workerm for which there is may a for any paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the same becomes due and payable, then this lease and proved the same payable, then this lease to refuse to drift at least one well | if the part thereof she wing for a month shalty, on ea e part of the lease so it amounts, paymer paid to the first and ance, for the second part of the premiser of the premiser of the premiser of side and shall remains deration casing of a the premiser of an another of six control, nor any other water about the premiser of the premi |
| the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinfinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt as producing well, the lessor to have free thesee to use a gas-producing well where the as the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor has producing well not utilized, the first patherenter for such wells to be made in advance.  And the part of the second part furthelessor, as advanced annual royalty on this lessor as a dvanced annual royalty on this lessor of the succeeding year thereafter of the bear credit on the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual option of the lessor, be util and void, and the part of the second part further controlly be declared null and void, and a part of said land and become the property of the refuse to be committed upon the portion in the part of said land and become the property of the rein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, and the part of said land and become the property of the rein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, and the part of said land and become the property of the rein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, and the oil-bearing horizon.  And it is mutually understood and agreed or indirectly made without the written consent transfer made or attempted without such consent transfer made or attempted wit    | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and eading its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accuments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one headed said fifty dollars roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this said desires to retain ges producing privileges.  Selective of the control of the discovery of great at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this great at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The same second binds the payment of the discovery of great great and binds.  The same second shall be a said to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of great great second part, and savence, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in adverm for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money as ame exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part, of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson.  So provide the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the value of the sound pay the secretary of the land of the pay the same so as the first part or to whomseeser shall be | if the part thereof shall the part thereof shall the part of it lease so remains a paymer and to the first a ance, for the first and second p shall, at the part of it of the preminer of the preminer of the part of the preminer of the payment of t |
| do not, before the tenth day of the month succeinfinally be determined under the direction of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the constitute the criterion in computing the royalt gas producing well, the lessor to have free the seese. To use a gas producing well where the as the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the seed of the seed of the second part further the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have free the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessor have been dead in advance and the part. Of the second part further contained to the stipulated royalties should the second years; Thirty cents per acre per annumifith and each succeeding year thereafter of the bear credit on the stipulated royalties should the neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual royalty on this lessor, but he lessor, be null and void, and a protion of the lessor, be null and void, and so the second part further contained the part. Of the second part further contained the part of the second part full, neglectory be declared rull and void, with due as me in a workmanlike manner to the fullest payeness to be committed upon the portion in apport the termination of this lease to the part. Secondary be declared rull and void, with due as the said land and become the property of herein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, large or exhausted wells, shall remain the property of herein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, large from the termination of the lease; that allow any intoxicating liquors to be sold or gourpose than that authorized in this lease, and the oil-bearing horizon.  And it is mutually understood and agreed or indirectly made without the written consent ransfer made or attempted without such consent ransfer made or attempted  | per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and seding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value of Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accuments succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the y; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one manded and fifty dollers roy he use of gas for lighting and warming the residence on the premises. But failure on the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea, desires to retain goe producing privileges.  — chall pay a royalty of fifty dollers to same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this sea, desires to retain goe producing privileges.  — chall pay a royalty of fifty dollers to gament the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first pay a royalty of fifty dollers to gament to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of great at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first pay and the description of the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in adverm for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money as ame exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part workerm for which there is may a for any paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the same becomes due and payable, then this lease all royalties paid in advance shall become the same becomes due and payable, then this lease and proved the same payable, then this lease to refuse to drift at least one well | if the part thereof shall remains a cover the premine state of the same state of the |