of the Indian Meridian, and containing Sixty More and Ninty Luce Care Handutho acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for, extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such off and natural gas, and to occupy and use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably necessary to carry on the work of prospecting for, extracting, piping, storing, refining, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to obtain from wells or other sources on said land, by means of pipe lines or otherwise, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including still further the right to use such oil and natural gas as fuel so far as it is necessary to the prosecution of said operations.

In consideration of which the part of the second part hereby agrees and binds to be paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the parties do not, before the tenth day of the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall be determined under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any month on or hefers the twenty fifth day of the month succeeding and where the value of the crude oil illustrates the average value during the month shall month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall constitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the use of gas for lighting and warming tresidence on the premises. But failure on the part of the lessee to use a gas-producing well where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far as the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee desires to retain gas-producing privileges. It shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on each gas-producing well not utilized, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments the residence for such walks to be made in education at the first payments.

thereafter for such wells to be made in advance at the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments thereafter for such wells to be made in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.

And the part of the second part further agrees and binds to the lessor..., as advanced annual royalty on this lease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and second years; Thirty cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the fifth and each succeeding year thereafter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall be a credit on the stipulated royalties should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second part neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the option of the lessor......, be null and void, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor......

The part of the second part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covered by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, and should the part of the second part fail, neglect, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion of the Secretary, be declared null and void, with due notice to the lessee and proof of the default; and said part of the second part agrees to operate the same in a workmanlike manner to the fullest possible extent, unavoicable casualties excepted; to commit no waste upon the said land, and to suffer no waste to be committed upon the portion in occupancy or use; to take good care of the same, and to promptly surrender and return the premises upon the termination of this lease to the part of the first part or to whomsoever shall be lawfully entitled thereto, and not to remove therefrom any buildings or improvements erected thereon during the said term by the said part of the second part, but said buildings and improvements shall remain a part of said land and become the property of the owner of the land as a part of the consideration for this lease, in addition to the other considerations herein specified, excepting that tools, boilers, boiler-houses, pipe lines, pumping and drilling outfits, tanks, engines, and machinery, and the casing of all dry or exhausted wells, shall remain the property of the said part of the second part, and may be removed at any time before the expiration of sixty days from the termination of the lease; that the will not permit any nuisance to be maintained on the premises under the control, nor allow any intoxicating liquors to be sold or given away for any purposes on such premises; that the will not use such premises for any other purpose than that authorized in this lease, and that before abandoning any well—it will securely plug the same so purpose than that authorized in this lease, and that before abandoning any well.....it will securely plug the same so as to effectually shut off all water above
