TRANSFERABLE ONLY WITH CONSENT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

OIL AND GAS MINING LEASE

UPON LAND SELECTED FOR ALLOTMENT, CHEROKEE NATION, INDIAN TERRITORY

(Sec. 72, Act of July 1, 1902, 32 Stat., 716, 726.)

under and in pursuance of the provisions of section of the Interior thereunder.  WITNESSETH: That the part and the footsined, and hereby agreed to be paid, observed, hereby demise, grant, and let unto the part and footsined, and hereby agreed to be paid, observed, hereby demise, grant, and let unto the part and footsined within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within a footh one half and the here being within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within a footh one half and the lessor, of the lindian Meridian, and containing extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and necessary to carry on the work of prospecting for, extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and natural gas. In consideration of which the part of the be paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten per do not, before the tenth day of the month succeedifinally be determined under the direction of the Second on the footh of the twenty-fifth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month constitute the criterion in computing the royalty; a gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the undessee to use a gas-producing well where the sam as the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee each gas-producing well not utilized, the first paym thereafter for such wells to be made in advance at the And the part of the second part further a lessor, as advanced annual royalty on this lease second years; Thirty cents per acre per annum in fifth and each succeeding year thereafter of the term be a credit on the stipulated royalties should the same neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual royalty on this lease. The part of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the lessor, be null and void, with due not should the part of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to should the part of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to should the part of the second part further cover by this lease, and	of Indificults of 72 of the act of Congress and rest part, for and in consideration and performed by the part you he second part, he second part hereit for your former with Castone fourth to Castone fourth to Castone for the walk of the value, on the leased gits extraction, agree upon the retary of the Interior in such in his succeeding, and where the value to pay in yearly payments, as of gas for lighting and warn to cannot be reasonably utilized desires to retain gas-producinent to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the congress of the confirment of the succeeding year, grees and binds the congress of the confirment to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to be confirmed to the confirment to be and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to be confirmed to the confirment to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to th	range.  acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for, i use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to e, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  heirs, executors on administrators, to pay or cause to premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the parties e value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall nanner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any liue of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each ning.  residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far g privileges.  shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on nade within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments dating from the first payment.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the
under and in pursuance of the provisions of section of the Interior thereunder.  WITNESSETH: That the part and of the contained, and hereby agreed to be paid, observed, hereby demise, grant, and let unto the part and of the being within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within Abouth One-half and the perture of the Indian Meridian, and containing extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and natural gas In consideration of which the part and the perture of the be paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten per do not, before the tenth day of the month succeeding finally be determined under the direction of the Seconth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on the perture of the lessor. In the part agas-producing well, the lessor to have free the ulessee. In use a gas-producing well where the sam as the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee each gas-producing well not utilized, the first paym thereafter for such wells to be made in advance at the And the part and the part and the part and the part and the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee each gas-producing well not utilized, the first paym thereafter for such wells to be made in advance at the And the part and the part and the part and the same per acree per annum in fifth and each succeeding year thereafter of the term be a credit on the stipulated royalties should the same gleet or refuse to pay such advanced annual royalty on this lease second years; Thirty cents per acree per annum in fifth and each succeeding year thereafter of the term be a credit on the stipulated royalties should the same gleet or refuse to pay such advanced annual royalty on this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon should the part and of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon should the part and of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon should the part and of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon should the	of Indificults of 72 of the act of Congress and rest part, for and in consideration and performed by the part you he second part, he second part hereit for your former with Castone fourth to Castone fourth to Castone for the walk of the value, on the leased gits extraction, agree upon the retary of the Interior in such in his succeeding, and where the value to pay in yearly payments, as of gas for lighting and warn to cannot be reasonably utilized desires to retain gas-producinent to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the congress of the confirment of the succeeding year, grees and binds the congress of the confirment to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to be confirmed to the confirment to be and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to be confirmed to the confirment to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to th	part y of the second part, proved July 1, 1902, and the regulations prescribed by the Secretary ion of the royalties, covenants, stipulations, and conditions hereinafter of the second part, heirs, executors or administrators, down, executors or administrators, for the term of present the following described tract of land, lying and the second part of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to a, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  Accurred to heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the parties evalue of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall nanner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any lue of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each ning.  ———————————————————————————————————
under and in pursuance of the provisions of section of the Interior thereunder.  WITNESSETH: That the part and of the contained, and hereby agreed to be paid, observed, hereby demise, grant, and let unto the part and of the being within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within a fourth One-half and the perture.  Rough Is East.  of the Indian Meridian, and containing extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and natural garent and the part and the second part further and the part and the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon a should the part and the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon a should the part and the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill and void, with due notices and to be committed upon the portion in acceptance.	of Indificults of 72 of the act of Congress and rest part, for and in consideration and performed by the part you he second part, he second part hereit for your former with Castone fourth to Castone fourth to Castone for the walk of the value, on the leased gits extraction, agree upon the retary of the Interior in such in his succeeding, and where the value to pay in yearly payments, as of gas for lighting and warn to cannot be reasonably utilized desires to retain gas-producinent to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the congress of the confirment of the succeeding year, grees and binds the congress of the confirment to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to be confirmed to the confirment to be and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to be confirmed to the confirment to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds the confirment to th	part y of the second part, proved July 1, 1902, and the regulations prescribed by the Secretary ion of the royalties, covenants, stipulations, and conditions hereinafter of the second part, heirs, executors or administrators, locally accounts or administrators, for the term of prescribing and conditions hereinafter of the second part, heirs, executors or administrators, for the term of prescribing and transport of the second part, heirs, executors or administrators, locally and as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  Account of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the parties evalue of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall nanner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any lue of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each uning.  ———————————————————————————————————
with Esseth: That the part of the fecontained, and hereby agreed to be paid, observed, hereby demise, grant, and let unto the part of the fereby demise, grant, and let unto the part of the Edity of the Lord of the Section of the Lord of Lord	rst part, for and in consideration and performed by the part you heirs, of, all of the oil deposits and nather Indian Territory, to-wit:  Construction  Construction  Construction  Location  Loca	range  acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for, it use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, an sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  According to the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  According to the crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the parties e value of the crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the parties e value of the crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the parties e value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each ning residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the at the rate so precribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far g privileges.  According to the payment.  According to the paid to the payment. of the Interior thereunder.  WITNESSETH: That the part of the frontained, and hereby agreed to be paid, observed, hereby demise, grant, and let unto the part of the frontained, and hereby agreed to be paid, observed, hereby demise, grant, and let unto the part of the frontained within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within the Indian Meridian, and containing the frontained within the Indian Meridian, and remove such oil and natural gas accessary to carry on the work of prospecting for, extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and natural gas In consideration of which the part of the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten per do not, before the tenth day of the month succeeding be determined under the direction of the Second that of the criterion in computing the royalty; a gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the unsure that the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee when the same re	rst part, for and in consideration and performed by the part you heirs, of, all of the oil deposits and nather Indian Territory, to-wit:  Construction  Construction  Construction  Location  Loca	range with interior thereunder.  With Esseth: That the part of the frontained, and hereby agreed to be paid, observed, hereby demise, grant, and let unto the part of the frontained, and hereby agreed to be paid, observed, hereby demise, grant, and let unto the part of the frontained within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within the Indian Meridian, and containing the frontained within the Indian Meridian, and containing the extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and natural gas in the same of the right to use such oil and natural gas In consideration of which the part of the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten per do not, before the tenth day of the month succeeding be determined under the direction of the Second that the criterion in computing the royalty; a gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the unas the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee has the same relate	rst part, for and in consideration and performed by the part you heirs, of, all of the oil deposits and nather Indian Territory, to-wit:  Construction  Construction  Construction  Location  Loca	range witnesseth: That the part of the frontained, and hereby agreed to be paid, observed, hereby demise, grant, and let unto the part of the frontained, and hereby agreed to be paid, observed, hereby demise, grant, and let unto the part of the frontained within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within which the Cherokee Indian Nation and within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within the Indian Meridian, and containing the Charlet of the Indian Meridian, and containing the Charlet of the Indian Meridian, and remove such oil and natural gall in consideration of which the part of the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten perion ont, before the tenth day of the month succeeding here the union that the criterion in computing the royalty; a gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the union to the criterion in computing the royalty; a gas-producing well not utilized, the first paym the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee when the same relates	township  township  natural gas, and to occupy and artacting, piping, storing, refinimens of pipe lines or otherwise as fuel so far as it is necessary second part hereby agrees and be sent of the value, on the leased g its extraction, agree upon the retary of the Interior in such a h succeeding, and where the value to pay in yearly payments, as eo figas for lighting and ware e cannot be reasonably utilized desires to retain gas-producinent to become due and to be me first of each sugceeding year, grees and binds lament.	range  acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for, i use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to to the prosecution of said operations.  Action 20, Journally 21 North  acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for, i use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to e, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  heirs, executors exadministrators to pay or cause to premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the parties e value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall nanner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any liue of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each ning.  The substitution of the lease of the substitution of the lease of the grivileges.  Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on ande within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments dating from the first payment.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the
peing within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within South One half of the More Project IS East.  The Indian Meridian, and containing the East of the Indian Meridian, and containing the East of the Indian Meridian, and remove such oil and necessary to carry on the work of prospecting for, extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and natural gain. In consideration of which the part the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of the properties of the indiance of the tenth day of the month succeeding the hole of the tenth day of the month succeeding the twenty-fifth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on the criterion in computing the royalty; a gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the unsucceeding well, the lessor to have free the unsucceeding well not utilized, the first payments the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesser of the second part further a sessor, as advanced annual royalty on this lease escond, as advanced annual royalty on this lease escond, as advanced annual royalty on this lease accord years; Thirty cents per acre per annum in the nation of the second part further and the part of the second part further and the part of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the part of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the second part further cover of the second part further cover o	township  townsh	range  acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for, i use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to so, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  heirs, executors exadiministrators to pay or cause to premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the partiese value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall nanner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any liue of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each ning.  residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far g privileges.  shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on ande within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments dating from the first payment.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the
peing within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within South One half of the More Project IS East.  The Indian Meridian, and containing the East of the Indian Meridian, and containing the East of the Indian Meridian, and remove such oil and necessary to carry on the work of prospecting for, extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and natural gain. In consideration of which the part the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of the properties of the indiance of the tenth day of the month succeeding the hole of the tenth day of the month succeeding the twenty-fifth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on the criterion in computing the royalty; a gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the unsucceeding well, the lessor to have free the unsucceeding well not utilized, the first payments the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesser of the second part further a sessor, as advanced annual royalty on this lease escond, as advanced annual royalty on this lease escond, as advanced annual royalty on this lease accord years; Thirty cents per acre per annum in the nation of the second part further and the part of the second part further and the part of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the part of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the second part further cover of the second part further cover o	township  townsh	range  acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for, i use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to so, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  heirs, executors exadiministrators to pay or cause to premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the partiese value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall nanner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any liue of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each ning.  residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far g privileges.  shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on ande within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments dating from the first payment.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the Jouth One-half of M. Nor Porize 13 East Section.  To the Indian Meridian, and containing extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and necessary to carry on the work of prospecting for, extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and natural gar. In consideration of which the part of the part of the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten per lo not, before the tenth day of the month succeeding the producing well, the lessor in computing the royalty; a gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the units the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee sach gas-producing well not utilized, the first paym thereafter for such wells to be made in advance at the And the part of the second part further a lessor is a dvanced annual royalty on this lease second years; Thirty cents per acre per annum in the national death succeeding year thereafter of the term be a credit on the stipulated royalties should the same neglect or refuse to pay such advanced annual royal poption of the lessor in the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereous the should the part of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereous the same in a workmanlike manner to the fullest possil waste to be committed upon the portion in the swate waste to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the swate to be committed upon the portion in the sw	township  Italian (80)  Inatural gas, and to occupy and tracting, piping, storing, refinimeans of pipe lines or otherwise as fuel so far as it is necessary second part hereby agrees and beent, of the value, on the leased gits extraction, agree upon the retary of the Interior in such in his succeeding, and where the value to pay in yearly payments, as so of gas for lighting and warm e cannot be reasonably utilized desires to retain gas-producinent to become due and to be me first of each succeeding year, grees and binds lameets.	range  acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for, i use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to e, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the parties e value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ananer as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any liue of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each ning are residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far g privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on hade within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments dating from the first payment.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the
of the Indian Meridian, and containing contract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and necessary to carry on the work of prospecting for, extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and natural gain. In consideration of which the part consideration of the sum of the paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten per do not, before the tenth day of the month succeeding inally be determined under the direction of the Secont onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month constitute the criterion in computing the royalty; a gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the understand the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee cach gas-producing well not utilized, the first payment the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee cach gas-producing well not utilized, the first payment can be a credit on the stipulated royalty on this lease escond, as advanced annual royalty on this lease accord years; Thirty cents per acre per annum in the stipulated royalties should the same relate to pay such advanced annual royal potion of the lessor. be null and void, and all rowalts lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the stipulated royalties and to drill at least one well thereon to should the part confideration and royal to the fullest possil waste to be committed upon the portion in the same in a workmanlike manner to the fullest possil waste to be committed upon the portion in the same waste to be committed upon the portion in the same waste to be committed upon the portion in the same waste to be committed upon the portion in the same waste to be committed upon the portion in the same waste to be committed upon the portion in the same waste to be committed upon the portion in the same waste to be committed upon the portion in the same waste to be committed upon the portion in the same waste to be committed upon the portion in the same case and to drill at least one well the room to the full sa	township  natural gas, and to occupy and stracting, piping, storing, refini means of pipe lines or otherwise as fuel so far as it is necessary beent of the value, on the leased g its extraction, agree upon the retary of the Interior in such m h succeeding, and where the vand to pay in yearly payments, as se of gas for lighting and warn e cannot be reasonably utilized desires to retain gas-producinent to become due and to be me first of each sugceeding year, grees and binds become due.	acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for, i use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to so a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the parties e value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall nanner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any liue of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each ning.  residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far g privileges.  shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on ande within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments dating from the first payment.
of the Indian Meridian, and containing contract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and necessary to carry on the work of prospecting for, explain from wells or other sources on said land, by still further the right to use such oil and natural gar. In consideration of which the part consideration of which the part consideration of which the part consideration of which the sum of the period onot, before the tenth day of the month succeeding in the sum of the period on the before the tenth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on the criterion in computing the royalty; a gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the uses the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesseement gas-producing well not utilized, the first payment hereafter for such wells to be made in advance at the And the part construction of the second part further a sesor construction, as advanced annual royalty on this lease escond years; Thirty cents per acre per annum; in the first payment of the second part further and the part construction of the lessor, be null and void, and all rowards the part construction of the lessor, be null and void, and all rowards the part construction of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the second part further cover the part construction of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the second part further cover of the second part further co	natural gas, and to occupy and stracting, piping, storing, refini means of pipe lines or otherwise is as fuel so far as it is necessary second part hereby agrees and be ent. of the value, on the leased g its extraction, agree upon the retary of the Interior in such in h succeeding, and where the value to pay in yearly payments, as see of gas for lighting and warn to cannot be reasonably utilized desires to retain gas-producinent to become due and to be in the first of each succeeding year, grees and binds become	acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for it use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to so, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the particle value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall nanner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any liue of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each ning.  residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far g privileges.  shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum or nade within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments dating from the first payment.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the
of the Indian Meridian, and containing contract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and necessary to carry on the work of prospecting for, explain from wells or other sources on said land, by still further the right to use such oil and natural gar. In consideration of which the part consideration of which the part consideration of which the part consideration of which the sum of the period onot, before the tenth day of the month succeeding in the sum of the period on the before the tenth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on the criterion in computing the royalty; a gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the uses the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesseement gas-producing well not utilized, the first payment hereafter for such wells to be made in advance at the And the part construction of the second part further a sesor construction, as advanced annual royalty on this lease escond years; Thirty cents per acre per annum; in the first payment of the second part further and the part construction of the lessor, be null and void, and all rowards the part construction of the lessor, be null and void, and all rowards the part construction of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the second part further cover the part construction of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the second part further cover of the second part further co	natural gas, and to occupy and stracting, piping, storing, refini means of pipe lines or otherwise is as fuel so far as it is necessary second part hereby agrees and be ent. of the value, on the leased g its extraction, agree upon the retary of the Interior in such in h succeeding, and where the value to pay in yearly payments, as see of gas for lighting and warn to cannot be reasonably utilized desires to retain gas-producinent to become due and to be in the first of each succeeding year, grees and binds become	acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for it use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to so, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the particle value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall nanner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any liue of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each ning.  residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far g privileges.  shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum or nade within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments dating from the first payment.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the
of the Indian Meridian, and containing contract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and necessary to carry on the work of prospecting for, explain from wells or other sources on said land, by still further the right to use such oil and natural gar. In consideration of which the part consideration of which the part consideration of which the part consideration of which the sum of the period onot, before the tenth day of the month succeeding in the sum of the period on the before the tenth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on the criterion in computing the royalty; a gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the uses the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesseement gas-producing well not utilized, the first payment hereafter for such wells to be made in advance at the And the part construction of the second part further a sesor construction, as advanced annual royalty on this lease escond years; Thirty cents per acre per annum; in the first payment of the second part further and the part construction of the lessor, be null and void, and all rowards the part construction of the lessor, be null and void, and all rowards the part construction of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the second part further cover the part construction of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the second part further cover of the second part further co	natural gas, and to occupy and stracting, piping, storing, refini means of pipe lines or otherwise is as fuel so far as it is necessary second part hereby agrees and be ent. of the value, on the leased g its extraction, agree upon the retary of the Interior in such in h succeeding, and where the value to pay in yearly payments, as see of gas for lighting and warn to cannot be reasonably utilized desires to retain gas-producinent to become due and to be in the first of each succeeding year, grees and binds become	acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for it use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to so, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  heirs, executors exadministrators to pay or cause to premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the parties evalue of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall nanner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any liue of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each ning.  residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so fa g privileges.  shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum or nade within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments dating from the first payment.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the
of the Indian Meridian, and containing contract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and necessary to carry on the work of prospecting for, explain from wells or other sources on said land, by still further the right to use such oil and natural gar. In consideration of which the part consideration of which the part consideration of which the part consideration of which the sum of the period onot, before the tenth day of the month succeeding in the sum of the period on the before the tenth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month on the criterion in computing the royalty; a gas-producing well, the lessor to have free the uses the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesseement gas-producing well not utilized, the first payment hereafter for such wells to be made in advance at the And the part construction of the second part further a sesor construction, as advanced annual royalty on this lease escond years; Thirty cents per acre per annum; in the first payment of the second part further and the part construction of the lessor, be null and void, and all rowards the part construction of the lessor, be null and void, and all rowards the part construction of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the second part further cover the part construction of the second part further cover by this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon to the second part further cover of the second part further co	natural gas, and to occupy and stracting, piping, storing, refini means of pipe lines or otherwise is as fuel so far as it is necessary second part hereby agrees and be ent. of the value, on the leased g its extraction, agree upon the retary of the Interior in such in h succeeding, and where the value to pay in yearly payments, as see of gas for lighting and warn to cannot be reasonably utilized desires to retain gas-producinent to become due and to be in the first of each succeeding year, grees and binds become	acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for it use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to so, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the particle value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall nanner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any liue of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each ning.  residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far g privileges.  shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum or nade within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments dating from the first payment.  heirs, executors or administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the extract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and accessary to carry on the work of prospecting for, expending from wells or other sources on said land, by still further the right to use such oil and natural game. In consideration of which the part	natural gas, and to occupy and tracting, piping, storing, refini means of pipe lines or otherwise as fuel so far as it is necessary second part hereby agrees and beent, of the value, on the leased g its extraction, agree upon the retary of the Interior in such in h succeeding, and where the vand to pay in yearly payments, as see of gas for lighting and warn e cannot be reasonably utilized desires to retain gas-producinent to become due and to be in the first of each sugceeding year, grees and binds hereafters.	it use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably ng, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including to the prosecution of said operations.  According to the prosecution of said operations.  According to the prosecution of said operations.  The provided the provided oil extracted from the said land, and if the particle evalue of the crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the particle evalue of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall canner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any liue of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each said the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far g privileges.  According to the crude oil on the part of the grey provided to the discovery of gas, payments dating from the first payment.  The provided the sufficient of the discovery of gas, payments dating from the first payment.  The provided the sufficient of the discovery of gas, payments of the part of the discovery of gas, payments of the part of the discovery of gas, payments of the part of the discovery of gas, payments of the part of the discovery of gas, payments of the part of the discovery of gas, payments of the part of the discovery of gas, payments of the part of the discovery of gas, payments of the part of the discovery of gas, payments of the part of the part of the discovery of gas, payments of the part of uildings or improvements erected thereon during t part of said land and become the property of the c	advance, for the third and fourt for which this lease is to run me exceed such sums paid as ad lty for the period of sixty day yalties paid in advance shall be ants and agrees to exercise dilig within twelve months from the or refuse to drill at least one to the lessee	to well reflect cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and hyanes; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the ; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall alwanced royalty, and further, that should the part. — of the second part is after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the come the money and property of the lessor. — of the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covered to of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, and well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion of the default; and said part. — of the second part agrees to operate the ice excepted; to commit no waste upon the said land, and to suffer a bod care of the same, and to promptly surrender and return the premise over shall be lawfully entitled thereto, and not to remove therefrom an information for this lease, in addition to the other consideration of the consideration for this lease, in addition to the other consideration ry or exhausted wells, shall remain the property of anys from the termination of the lease; that the low any intoxicating liquors to be sold or given urpose than that authorized in this lease, and that soil-bearing horizon.  And it is mutually understood and agreed that	the said part 7 of the secon will not permit any nuisa away for any purposes on se before abandoning any well 4 to sublease, assignment or tra	and drilling outfits, tanks, engines, and machinery, and the casing of all d part, and may be removed at any time before the expiration of sixty nee to be maintained on the premises under control, no uch premises; that will not use such premises for any othe will securely plug the same so as to effectually shut off all water above the same of this lesse or of any interest therein or thereunder can be directly ecretary of the Interior first obtained, and that any such assignment of ransfer made or attempted without such consent sh And the said part. yof the second part. furth howing the whole amount of oil mined or removed	all be void. or covenants and agrees that , and all sums due as royalty s	will keep an accurate account of all oil mining operations shall be a lien on all implements, tools, movable machinery, and other he oil obtained from the land herein leased, as security for the paymen
And the part.4	ry of the Interior relative to oil	il for the period of sixty days to pay the stipulated monthly royalty