金子のないないとうないとうないできるとはあったいと

TRANSFERABLE ONLY WITH CONSENT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

OIL AND GAS MINING LEASE

UPON LAND SELECTED FOR ALLOTMENT, CHEROKEE NATION, INDIAN TERRITORY

(Sec. 72, Act of July 1, 1902, 32 Stat., 716, 726.)

	of Lease, Made and entered into, in quadruplicate, on this // day of November 1 2 200 1	Of Dease, Made and entered into, in quadruplicate, on this day of Morenter Minnie O Foreman, a margied women, age 28 years; a mixed blood of Jakleguah, Indian Territory part 4 of the first part and my a corporation organized and quisting under the lows of the
A. D. 190 y by and between	1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
Cherokee	of the first part and
The Quinto Oil Compa	ny a corporation organized and greating under the lows of the Indian Venitory	CONTROL OF THE PROPERTY OF THE
	The second of th of Bartleville and Ramona, Indian Territory part of the second part, under and in pursuance of the pro-	visions of section 72 of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, and the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior thereunder.
WITNESSETH . That the nu	of the first part for and in consideration of the royalties, covenants, stipulations, and conditions hereinafter contained and hereby agreed to be	nt 4 of the first part, for and in consideration of the royalties, covenants, stipulations, and conditions hereinafter successfund assigns had a performed by the part. of the second part, heirs, executors or administrators, do and heirs, executors or administrators, do and heirs, executors or administrators, for the term of the second part, heirs, executors or administrators, for the term of the second part, heirs, executors or administrators, for the term of the second part, heirs, executors or administrators.
hereby demise grant and let unto t	he part 4 of the second part to heirs, executors or administrators, for the term of fifteen vears fro	m the date hereof, all of the oil deposits and natural gas in or under the following described tract of land, lying and 3 1 (a) 1 (a) (a) (b) (b) (c) (c) (c) (d) (d) (d)	the aid with the Tueston Positions to wife Cha
Mr 901 6	Lat two (2) and SE/4 of Lat two (2), 11 & g MM4 g SE 4 and le SE/4
Kell and mile	L ACL
Do 4 of one muly of the	QXIO Year Commission of the contraction of the cont and the property of the proper	The same of the sa المواجد موليه ومناه والماك القواء الها الماك الماكان الماكان الماكان الماكان الماكان الماكان الماكان	The state of the s and a property of the second s the second second with the second sec
	The second of th
of section30	township 2-/ North range 13 East of the Indian Meridian and contain	ing 49.7/ acres, more or less, with the right to prospect for, extract, nine, store, refine, and rem	ove such oil and natural gas, and to occupy and use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonably necessary to carry on the work of p	respecting for, extracting, piping, storing, refining, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right to obtain from wells or other sources o	n said land, by means of pipe lines or otherwise, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including and natural gas as fuel so far as it is necessary to the prosecution of said operations.
In consideration of which the	part 4 of the second part hereby agrees and hinds 1991 the heirs executors or administrators to pay or cause to he paid to the lessor, as royalty the	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the parties 그는 그는 불자 그는 그림은 그는 그 그 그 그리고 그리고 그리고 그 그리고 그리고 그리고 그리고 그리고	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of an education of the per cent.
do not, before the tenth day of the	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall of the royalty; and to say in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one bundled and fifty dollars royalty, on each
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing as-moducing well, the least the constitute of	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each that the premises. But failure on the part of the
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing as-producing well, the lesson to lesse a the same relates to mining oil.	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each in law to the use of gas for lighting and warming the presidence on the premises. But failure on the part of the lighting the part of the lighting the reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far it if the lessey desires to retain gas producing privileges. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing as-producing well, the lesson to lessee to use a gas-producing we as the same relates to mining oil, beach and producing well not utilized.	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each in the free the use of gas for lighting and warming the part of the lighting of the lease so far ut if the lessee the reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far ut if the lessee to retain gas-producing privileges.  Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each have free the use of gas for lighting and warming the residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the ll where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far utilif the lesser. desires to retain gas producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments it in advance at the first of each succeeding war, dating from the first of each succeeding the months.
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each have free the use of gas for lighting and warming the residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the lighting the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far at if the lessey desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment to be paid to the paid to the late of the discovery of gas, payments the part further agrees and binds where the part of the date of the discovery of gas, payments the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor to use a gas-producing we as the same relates to mining oil, he each gas-producing well not utilized thereafter for such wells to be made.  And the part — of the second sesor —, as advanced annual roys second years. Thirty cents per acr	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each the first payment to be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far not if the lesser. It is also be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment is a succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment is a succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment is a succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment is a succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment is a succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment is a succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment is a succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment is a succeeding year, dating from the first payment.
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each in the first payment cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far not if the lessey desires to retain gas producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment to be succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  The first payment is advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the senter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each in five free the use of gas for lighting and warming.  The first payment cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far util if the lessey.  Assires to retain gas producing privileges.  It the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  A part further agrees and binds for the first payment, here, executors of administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the alty on this lease, the sums of money as follows, to wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and se per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the senter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall see should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part.   The form of the second part
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing as-producing well, the lesson to use a gas-producing we as the same relates to mining oil, be each gas-producing well not utilized thereafter for such wells to be made. And the part of the second years; Thirty cents per acrifith and each succeeding year there he a credit on the stipulated royaltin neglect or refuse to pay such advance of the lesson the null amontion of the lesson the null amontion of the lesson the result and the same related to the stipulated royaltin neglect or refuse to pay such advance of the lesson the null amontion of the lesson the same related to the second the lesson the null amontion of the lesson the same related to the same rel	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each in a control of the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far not lift the lessey. It is a control of the lessey desires to retain gas-producing privileges. It is all pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments and part further agrees and binds were a follows, to wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and a per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and sees should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. Of the second part ced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the divide and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lesson to use a gas-producing we as the same relates to mining oil, he each gas-producing well not utilized thereafter for such wells to be made.  And the part	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each have free the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the light where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far not if the lessey desires to retain gas-producing privileges. shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of sach succeeding year, deting from the first payment, and part further agrees and binds where the country, executors of administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the after of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall see should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. of the second part ced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lavoid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lesson to use a gas-producing we as the same relates to mining oil, he each gas-producing well not utilized thereafter for such wells to be made.  And the part — of the second years; Thirty cents per acrifith and each succeeding year there he a credit on the stipulated royaltineglect or refuse to pay such advan option of the lesson —, be null and The part — of the second phythis lease, and to drill at least on the stipulated royaltineglect or acrification of the second phythis lease, and to drill at least on the stipulated to drill at least on the second phythis lease, and to drill at least on the second phythis lease, and to drill at least on the second phythis lease, and to drill at least on the second phythis lease, and to drill at least on the second phythis lease, and to drill at least on the second phythis lease.	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value intereor shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each have free the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the light have the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far not if the lessey desires to retain gas-producing privileges. shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first of sach succeeding year, dating from the first payment. In advance at the first of sach succeeding year, dating from the first payment. In advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and a per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the safter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall ses should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. of the second part ced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lavoid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor was the same relates to mining oil, he each gas-producing well not utilized thereafter for such wells to be made.  And the part woof the second years; Thirty cents per acrifith and each succeeding year there he a credit on the stipulated royaltineglect or refuse to pay such advant option of the lessor, be null and The part of the second ply this lease, and to drill at least of should the part	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each in a first payment in the premises. But failure on the part of the lit where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far not if the lessey. desires to retain gas-producing privileges. shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of sach succeeding year, dating from the first payment. In the first of sach succeeding year, dating from the first payment. In the first payment, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and a per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the safter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall see should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. In of the second part ced annual royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson.  In advance, for the lands covered are well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, and part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the spining of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covered me well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, and part further covena
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	cotion of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each have free the use of gas for lighting and warming. The residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the ll where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far not if the lessey. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The first payment is lease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and are per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the setter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall see should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. of the second part ced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lavoid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  The first payment is and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covered newell thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, and the fullest possible extent, unavoidable casualties excepted; to commit no waste upon the said land, and to suffer no
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dirmonth on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each in five free the use of gas for lighting and warming. The residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the ll where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far not if the lesseu. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  In advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  In advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and each of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall see should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. Of the second part ced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the levoid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  Least further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covered newell thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, and the full due notice to the lessee. And proof of the default; and said part. Of the second part agrees to operate the the fullest possible extent, unavoidable casualties excepted;
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dirmonth on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each line free the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the lighting the month shall where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far not if the lessee desires to retain gas-producing privileges. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of each succeeding year, deting from the first payment.  In advance at the first of each succeeding year, deting from the first payment.  In advance, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and a per annum, in advance, for the first and a per annum, in advance, for the first and septer of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall ses should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second part ced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the livoid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  Light for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lavid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become th
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dirmonth on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor was the same relates to mining oil, he each gas-producing well not utilizer thereafter for such wells to be made.  And the part wolls to be made.  And the part wofthe secon lessor as advanced annual roys second years; Thirty cents per acrifith and each succeeding year there he a credit on the stipulated royaltineglect or refuse to pay such advan option of the lessor. he null and the part of the second play this lease, and to drill at least of the second possession, be declared null and vois same in a workmanlike manner to waste to be committed upon the pupon the termination of this lease the buildings or improvements erected.	ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each have free the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the ll where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far utif the lesser. desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments and part further agrees and binds where the same cannot in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  In advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  In advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per arnum, in advance, for the first and aper annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per arnum, in advance, for the first and see should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second part ced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the law oid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  The first part of the default, and said part of the second part agrees to operate the the fullest possible extent, unavoidable casualties excepted; to commit no waste upon the said land, and to suffer no retion in commendation of the default, and said part of the second part agrees to operate the thereon during the said term by the said part of the sound part, but said buildings and improvements shall remain property of the owner of the land as a part o
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dirmonth on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor consistence of the same relates to mining oil, he each gas-producing well not utilized thereafter for such wells to be made.  And the part of the second lessor, as advanced annual roys second years; Thirty cents per acrefith and each succeeding year there he a credit on the stipulated royaltineglect or refuse to pay such advance option of the lessor, be null and. The part of the second play this lease, and to drill at least of should the part. of the second producing, be declared null and vois same in a workmanlike manner to waste to be committed upon the poupon the termination of this lease the buildings or improvements erected a part of said land and become the herein specified, excepting that to	ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each have free the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the ll where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far the little tessee. It is also be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. It is also the same of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and aper annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the safter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall see should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. of the second part ced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the divoid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson.  The part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covered me well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, and nor the first passible extent, unavoidable casualties excepted; to commit no waste upon the said land, and to suffer no rition in company of the land as a part of the second part, but said buildings and improvements shall remain property of the owner of the land as a part of the consideration for this lease, nin addition to the other consider
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dirmonth on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one handred and fifty dollars royalty, on each flave free the use of gas for lighting and warming.  The residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the liwhere the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far it if the lesser. desires to retain gas-producing privileges.  In the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of sach succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  A part further agrees and binds.  The first payment, the first payment, herris, executors of administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the alty on this lease, the sums of money as follows, to wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and a per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the safter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall see should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part.  The royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lavoid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson.  The royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lavoid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson.  The royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lavoid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dirmonth on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each live free the use of gas for lighting and warming the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far at it the lease to retain gas-producing privileges. It is the lease to retain gas-producing privileges that the first payment to become due and to be under within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of seeds succeeding year, deting from the first payment. The first payment is a per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and a per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the sestion of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall ses should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. — of the second part ced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the it void, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor. — of the second part faith energy and the second part faith, neglect, or refuse to drill at least one well thereon within twelve mentals from the date of the approval of the bend by the Secretary of the Interior, and part faith, neglect, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion of the the full thereon within twelve mentals from the date of the approval of the bend by the Secretary of the Interior, and part faith due notice to the lessee. — and proof of the default, and said part.
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dirmonth on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one handred and fifty dollars royalty, on each flave free the use of gas for lighting and warming.  The residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the liwhere the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far it if the lesser. desires to retain gas-producing privileges.  In the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of sach succeeding year, dating from the first payment.  A part further agrees and binds.  The first payment, the first payment, herris, executors of administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the alty on this lease, the sums of money as follows, to wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and a per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the safter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall see should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part.  The royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lavoid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson.  The royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lavoid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson.  The royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lavoid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dirmonth on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lesson state of the second gas-producing well the lesson of the second gas-producing well not utilized thereafter for such wells to be made.  And the part of the second general great of the second years; Thirty cents per acrififth and each succeeding year there he a credit on the stipulated royaltineglect or refuse to pay such advan option of the lesson, be null and the part of the second play this lease, and to drill at least or should the part of the second general great gre	enotin of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and so pay the troyalty accurring for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one bindered and fifty dollars royalty, on each involved the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far at if the lessee. desires to rotain gas producing privileges. shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the fact of the discovery of gas, payments the first payment.  In advance, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and a per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the set of the discovery of gas, payments are should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. In of the second part ced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the it void, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  art further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covered me well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, and the fullest possible extent, unavoidable casualties excepted; to commit no waste upon the said land, and to suffer no rition in couple of the distance of the second part. In of the second part, and may be removed at any time before the expirati
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dir month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor was the same relates to mining oil, he each gas-producing well not utilizer thereafter for such wells to be made.  And the part wolls to be made and the part work of the second years; Thirty cents per acrififth and each succeeding year there he a credit on the stipulated royaltineglect or refuse to pay such advan option of the lessor, be null and the part woll and the part woll and the second play this lease, and to drill at least of the second play this lease, and to drill at least of the second play the lease, and to drill at least of the second play the lease, and to drill at least of the second play to be declared null and vois same in a workmanlike manner to waste to be committed upon the poupon the termination of this lease the buildings or improvements erected a part of said land and become the herein specified, excepting that to dry or exhausted wells, shall remaid days from the termination of the leallow any intoxicating liquors to be purpose than that authorized in this the oil-bearing horizon.  And it is mutually understoon.	enoth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premess, the value thereof shall ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accuring for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one bindred and fifty dollars royalty, on each of law of the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far util the lessee desires to retain gas producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the last of the discovery of gas, payments and payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments and part further agrees and binds heris, essention of administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the alter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall ses should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second part ced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and apayble, then this lease shall, at the divide and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dirmonth on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	ention of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one thindred and fifty dollars royalty, on each flave free the use of gas for lighting and warming the residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the ll where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far util the lesser. desires to retain gare producing privileges. shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of each succeeding year, desting from the first payment.  In the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of each succeeding year, desting from the first payment.  In depart further agrees and binds when the first payment is depart further agrees and binds when the first payment is a per annum, in advance, for the first and a per annum, in advance, for the first and service of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid shall see should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. of the second part cod annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the divoid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor.  Art further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covered new well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bend by the Secretary of the Interior, and the further, and the residual part.  On the li
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dimonth on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing as-producing well, the lessor	enough succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof section of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall give royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hindred and fifty dollars royalty, on each like the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far util the lesser. desires to retain gar-producing privileges do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dim month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the less of the second tessee to use a gas-producing we as the same relates to mining oil, he each gas-producing well not utilized therefore the second years; Thirty cents per acrefifth and each succeeding year there be a credit on the stipulated royalting let or refuse to pay such advan option of the lessor, be null and The part	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall extention of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fitty allower royalty, on each liver the the use of gas for lighting and warming.  residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the ill where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far util the lesser.  desires to retain gare producing privileges
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dimonth on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall contion of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall gether to yalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one handled and fifty dollars royalty, on each flave free the use of gas for lighting and warming. A residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the lit where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far utility the lesser. It is a shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the late of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of seeds succeeding year, duting from the date of the discovery of gas, payments in advance at the first of seeds succeeding year, duting from the first of the discovery of gas, payments in advance and binds. The payment is the payment of the first agrees and binds. The payment is the payment of the first agrees and binds. The payment is the payment of the first agrees and binds. The payment is the payment of the first agrees and binds. The payment is the payment of the first agree and the payment is the payment of the first agree. The payment is the payment is the payment of the first agree and the payment is the payment of the first agree and payment of the first and a per annum, in advance, for the first and a per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acree per annum, in advance, for the first and a per annum, in advance, for the first and a per annum, in advance, for the first of the second payment of the s
do not, before the tenth day of the finally be determined under the dirmonth on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the less of the second pass the same relates to mining oil, he each gas-producing well not utilized thereafter for such wells to be made.  And the part of the second pass of the second years; Thirty cents per acrififth and each succeeding year there he a credit on the stipulated royaltineglect or refuse to pay such advan option of the lesson, be null and The part of the second pass of the sec	month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof shall extention of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for any day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shall g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fitty allower royalty, on each liver the the use of gas for lighting and warming.  residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the ill where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so far util the lesser.  desires to retain gare producing privileges

And the said part woof the second part expressly agrees that should work sublessees, heirs, executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, violate any of the covenants, stipulations, or provisions of this lesse, or fail for the period of sixty days to pay the stipulated monthly royalty provided for herein, then the part is of the first part shall be at liberty in discretion, to avoid this indenture of lesse and cause the same to be annulled, when all the right, franchises, and privileges of the part is of the second part, when sublessees, heirs, executors, administrators, successors, or assigns hereunder shall cease and end without further proceedings.

112