TRANSFERABLE ONLY WITH CONSENT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR and o

. »	IL AND GAS MINING LEASE
UPON LAND SELE	CTED FOR ALLOTMENT, CHEROKEE NATION, INDIAN TERRITOR
	(Sec. 72, Act of July 1, 1902, 32 Stat., 716, 726.)
This Tubertune	of Lease, Made and entered into, in quadruplicate, on this 6th day of Lifeton her
A. D. 190#, by and between	George Canoc of Bunch, Indian Territory part 4 of the first pa adolph C. Stich	The state of the s A the state of the section of the se	operang pandanggang in bangkan in Angkatan ing paktang ang ang ang ang ang ang ang ang ang the control of the second of the control of the con and the control of th	of Independence, Mansar part 4 of the second under and in pursuance of the pro-	visions of section 72 of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, and the regulations prescribed by the Sec of the Interior thereunder.	요즘 보고 있는 사람은 이 그 아팠다면 말았습니다 하는 프랑이지를 하는 아름일 없었다.
WITNESSETH: That the pa	art contained and hereby agreed to be	neid observed and performed by the part of the second part the heirs are autoministrators hereby demise, grant, and let unto t	the part f of the second part, his beirs, executors or administrators, for the term of fifteen years fro	m the date hereof, all of the oil deposits and natural gas in or under the following described track of land, lyin being within the Cherokee Indian N	ation and within the Indian Territory, to-wit: The
n. E. 14 of the ;	n. W. 4 and the J. M. 4 of the M. E. 4
	Control of the state of the sta المرافعة والمار المراجعة والواسو المعامة بوالراف فالمهود الم	and the state of t of section 2-9	ng lighty acres, more or less, with the right to prosper
The take was a factor	요. () - 하이 하이트 2012 11 12 1일 보다 하는 그는 그림 모양으로 보고 있는 것이라고 있다. 그는 그림 모양으로 보고 있다.
In consideration of which the r be paid to the lessor, as royalty the	and natural gas as fuel so far as it is necessary to the prosecution of said operations. party of the second part hereby agrees and binds. Interest, executors or administrators to pay or ca sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the do not, before the tenth day of the m	sum of ten per cent, of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the ponth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dire	sum of ten per cent, of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the p nonth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing f
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the m finally be determined under the dire month on or before the twenty-fifth of constitute the criterion in computing	sum of ten per cent, of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the ponth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gethe royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end, of each year, one fundred and fifty dollars royalty, or do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor.	sum of ten per cent, of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the pronth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month g the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one fundred and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming be paid to the lessor, as royally the do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well a the lessor.	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the pound is succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month go the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one funded and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming
be paid to the lessor, as royalty the do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the direction on the before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the pronth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereosetion of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gethe royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end, of each year, one fluinted and fifty dollars royalty, on have free the use of gas for lighting and warming be paid to the lessor, as royalty the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the direction on the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the pronth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo action of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month go the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end, of each year, one fundred and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming. The creating are cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the leases. The leases desires to retain gas producing privileges. The list payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first of each succeeding year, detine from the first payment.
be paid to the lessor, as royalty the do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the direction on the before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the pronth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo action of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gether could be pay in yearly payments, at the end, of each year, one fluinted and fifty dollars royalty, on have free the use of gas for lighting and warming
be paid to the lessor, as royally the do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dire month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gethe royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one fundred and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part I where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at it if the lessee desires to retain gas producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. In a payment to be come due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. In a payment to be succeeding year, dating from the first payment.
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the direment on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor. To lessee to use a gas-producing well as the same relates to mining oil, but each gas-producing well not utilized, thereafter for such wells to be made. And the part — of the second lessor — as advanced annual royal second years; Thirty cents per acre fifth and each succeeding year thereafter.	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gethe royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one fundred and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming. The same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the lease desires to retain gas producing privileges. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The first payment is become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The first payment is pay or cause to be paid lity on this lease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per numm, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, fafter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the direment on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor. To lessee to use a gas-producing well as the same relates to mining oil, but each gas-producing well not utilized; thereafter for such wells to be made. And the part of the second lessor, as advanced annual royal second years; Thirty cents per acrefifth and each succeeding year thereafter to the stipulated royalties.	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the pronth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing fe day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month go the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one fundred and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming. The first payment be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the lease connected to retain gas producing privileges. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The first payment to be sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per naum, in advance, for the first per naum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, fafter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid as should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. The first payment is exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. The first payment is exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part.
be paid to the lessor, as royally the id onot, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the direment on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well at lessor. The lesse to use a gas-producing well as the same relates to mining oil, but each gas-producing well not utilized, thereafter for such wells to be made. And the part for the second lessor, as advanced annual royal second years; Thirty cents per acrefith and each succeeding year thereafter to the stipulated royalties neglect or refuse to pay such advance	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month go the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month go the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one funded and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming. The first payment be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the leases. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the flate of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the flate of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the flate of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first payment. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the flate of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first payment. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the flate of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first payment. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the flate of the discovery of gas, pay in advance, for the first payment. The first payment to become due and bourth years; and Seventy-five cents per annum, in advance, for the first payment. The first payment to be a first payment to pay or cause to be paid the first payment.
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dire month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas producing well, the lessor	sum of ten per cent, of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing feday of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gethe royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one fundred and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the m finally be determined under the dire month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing feday of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gethe royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one fundred and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the nonth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing feday of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gethe royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one fundred and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming. The cresidence on the premises. But failure on the part I where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the lessee. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the diate of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first of each succeeding year, duting from the first payment. I do part further agrees and binds famulation is the first payment. I do part further agrees and binds famulation is the first payment. I do part further agrees and binds famulation is the first payment. I do part further agrees and binds famulation is the first payment. I do part further agrees and binds famulation is the first payment. I do pay the royalty for the first payment. I do pay the royalty for the best of the same payment. I do pay the royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, void, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, woid, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor. Intrinvitor covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands of the well thereon within twelve mouths from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior art fail, neglect, or refuse to drill at least one
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the direment on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well at lessor. To lessee to use a gas-producing well as the same relates to mining oil, but each gas-producing well not utilized; thereafter for such wells to be made. And the part of the second lessor. As advanced annual royal second years; Thirty cents per acre fifth and each succeeding year thereafter or refuse to pay such advance option of the lessor. The null and the part of the second part of	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the nonth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing fo day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month go the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one fundred and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming. In the lease
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the direment on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well at lessor. To lessee to use a gas-producing well as the same relates to mining oil, but each gas-producing well not utilized; thereafter for such wells to be made. And the part of the second lessor, as advanced annual royal second years; Thirty cents per acre fifth and each succeeding year thereafter for such wells to pay such advance option of the lessor, be null and. The part of the second pay this lease, and to drill at least on should the part of the second pay secretary, be declared null and void, same in a workmanlike manner to the waste to be committed upon the port	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing fe day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month go the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one fundred and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming. It where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the lease desires to retain gas producing privileges. It where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the lease desires to retain gas producing privileges. It is the lease of gas for stain gas producing privileges. It is the lease of desires to retain gas producing privileges. It is the lease of desires to retain gas producing privileges. It is the lease of desires to retain gas producing privileges. It is the lease of the discovery of gas, pey in advance at the first payment. It is the lease of the discovery of gas, pey in advance at the first payment. It is the lease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per naum, in advance, for the first payment. It is the lease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per naum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per naum, in advance, for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dire month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	sum of ten per cent, of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing feday of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gethe royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one fundred and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dire month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	nonth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing to day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month go the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one faunded and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming. Low residence on the premises. But failure on the part I where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the lessee. Low residence on the premises. But failure on the part I where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the lessee. Low residence on the premises. But failure on the part I where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the lessee. Low residence on the premises. But failure on the part I where the same to retain gas producing privileges. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first of sach succeeding year, dating from the first payment. depart further agrees and binds from the first payment. depart further agrees and binds from the first payment. depart further agrees and binds from the first payment. depart further agrees and binds from the first payment. depart further agrees and binds from the first payment. depart further for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid a should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part. for the first pay for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, v
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dire month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises; of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the pmonth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises; the value there is cition of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing of day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month go the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one fluided and fifty dollars royalty, on have free the use of gas for lighting and warming. It is not the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the lessee. desires to rotain gas producing privileges. shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annually the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the late of the discovery of gas, per in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. It is not the lease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per annum, in ad
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	nonth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month graph that the provent of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month graph that it is not so pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming. Advantage of the provided and the payments are so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the leases—desires to rotain gas producing privileges—shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the dust of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. It is a sum of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first payment. It is the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paic as should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part—of the secon and annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, void, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor— Int further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands of the well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior at fail, neglect, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion, with due notice to the lesser—und prese of the second part, but said buildings and improvements shall report of the owne
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well and lessor. To lessee to use a gas-producing well as the same relates to mining oil, but each gas-producing well not utilized, thereafter for such wells to be made. And the part of the second lessor. And the part of the second lessor as advanced annual royal second years; Thirty cents per acre fifth and each succeeding year thereafter for such second gas to the second part of	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises; of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the pmonth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo section of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing fe day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month go the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one fundred and fifty dollars royalty, on have free the use of gas for lighting and warming. Author received and fifty dollars are stated and the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the lease desires to rotain gas producing privileges. At the lease desires to rotain gas producing privileges. At the lease desires to rotain gas producing privileges. At the lease desires to rotain gas producing privileges. At the last of account the and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first payment. At the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, pay in advance at the first lease of money as follows, to wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first payment. At payment desired the same of the lands of the well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior and full at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion, with due notice to the lessee. Interior payment of the said part 4. Of the second part, but said buildings and im
be paid to the lessor, as royally the sed not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	nonth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the pronth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo section of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month graph of the growing and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month graph of the power of the property of the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end, of each year, end fluided and fifty dollars royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming the prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the lease desires to retain gas producing privileges. I where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the lease desires to retain gas producing privileges. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, per in advance at the first of each exceeding yyar, dating from the first payment. I would not his lease, the sums of money as follows, to wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per annum, in advance, for the first per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per annum, in advance, for the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid after of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid as should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second part grees of the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second part of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	sum of ten per cent, of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil oxtracted from the said land, and if the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value there extends the screen of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, each fluid and fifty dollars royalty, on have free the use of gas for lighting and warning the month of the part of the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at if the lease of desires to totain gas producing privileges. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per cannot, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the late of the discovery of gas, pey in advance at the first of sach succeeding year, dating from the first payment. In advance, the sums of money as follows, to wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first payment, advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for after of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paic as should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the secon ced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, void, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lessor. In further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands of each well thereon within theelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior with the review of the land as a part of the consideration for this lease, in addition to the other consider to the past pay
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	sum of ten per cent, of the value, on the leased premises; of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises; the value thereo section of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gother month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gother month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gother month is compared to the part of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the part of the crude of the discovery of ges, pay in advance at the first of each succeeding yyar, duting from the first payment. The payment of the beams of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per annum, in advance, for the first per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per annum,
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	nouth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereo section of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gather of the graph of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gather of the graph of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gather of the graph of the graph of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gather of the graph
be paid to the lessor, as royally the sed not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises; of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises; the value there ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gate you have free the use of gas for lighting and warming the cach year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on have free the use of gas for lighting and warming the cach year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on the very sum of the part of this lease at it the lease cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at it the lease. As a sum of the part of this lease is the tent of the lease of the late of the discovery of gas, per in advance and the first of seals expecteding your, dating from the first payment. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the late of the discovery of gas, per in advance and the first of seals expected by the first payment. I was a sum of money as follows, to write Filtern ents per acre per annum, in advance, for the fir per annum, in advance, for the fir per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the fir per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per only the first payment. I would the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part y of the second end annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, wold, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson may in the discretion will be received to the first payment and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of well
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dire month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	nouth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value there ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month got the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, end fluctuates, the average value during the month gas the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, end fluctuates, the average value during the month gas the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, end fluctuates, the average and binds and to be made within thirty days from the late of the discovery of gas, per in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the fart payment. In the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the late of the discovery of gas, per in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the fart payment. In the lease, the sums of money as follows, to write: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first payment and payment and payment. In the first payment is lease, the sums of money as follows, to write: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for per annum, in advance, for the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid after of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid as should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part \(\frac{1}{2} \) of the seconded annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, void, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lease. In further covenants and agrees to exercise
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dire month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises; of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises; the value there ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month gate you have free the use of gas for lighting and warming the cach year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on have free the use of gas for lighting and warming the cach year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on the very sum of the part of this lease at it the lease cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease at it the lease. As a sum of the part of this lease is the tent of the lease of the late of the discovery of gas, per in advance and the first of seals expecteding your, dating from the first payment. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the late of the discovery of gas, per in advance and the first of seals expected by the first payment. I was a sum of money as follows, to write Filtern ents per acre per annum, in advance, for the fir per annum, in advance, for the fir per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the fir per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per only the first payment. I would the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part y of the second end annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, wold, and all royalties paid in advance shall become the money and property of the lesson may in the discretion will be received to the first payment and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of well
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the period of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing a day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month got the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month got the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month got the royalty accruing a day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month got the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month average and the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease it if the lessees. desires to rotain gese preducing privileges. It if the lessees. desires to rotain gese preducing privileges. It if the lessees. desires to rotain gese preducing privileges. It is the lessees. desires to rotain gese preducing privileges. It is the lessees. desires to rotain gese preducing privileges. It is the lessees. desires diffus dollars per some the distance of the discovery of ges, per in advance, and the first of said and the distance and the first of said and the distance of the first per annum, in advance, for the first per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first per annum, in advance, for the said term for the said term for the said term for the first per a
be paid to the lessor, as royally the a do not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the period in the secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month glassy of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month flower of the second pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, each stundered and fifty dollers royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming the end of each year, each stundered and fifty dollers royalty, or have free the use of gas for lighting and warming the end of the premises. But failure on the part where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease if it the leases. Casires to ratin gas producing privileges. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, pay it is advance at the first of seals succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, pay it is advance at the first of seals succeeding year, dating from the first payment. The first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, pay it is advanced to the seal payment. The first payment to become due and to be made within the first payment in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third years, and the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part \(\text{y} \) of the second seasonalty and agreed that said sums of money so paid sea
be paid to the lessor, as royally the sed not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas producing well, the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the ponths succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the averages, the value thereo setion of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil succeeding the control of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil of the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the crude oil of the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the crude oil
be paid to the lessor, as royally the sed not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dire month on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well, the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the per conth succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average she value thereo ection of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the month of the control of the
be paid to the lessor, as royally the ado not, before the tenth day of the minally be determined under the dirementh on or before the twenty-fifth constitute the criterion in computing gas-producing well the lessor	sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the ponths succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the averages, the value thereo setion of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil succeeding the control of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil of the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month of the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the crude oil of the crude oil of the crude oil fluctuates, the crude oil