TRANSFERABLE ONLY WITH CONSENT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

OIL AND GAS MINING LEASE

UPON LAND SELECTED FOR ALLOTMENT, CHEROKEE NATION, INDIAN TERRITORY

(Sec. 72, Act of July 1, 1902, 32 Stat., 716, 726.,

	This Indenture of Lease, Made and entered into, in quadruplicate, on this fundy presenting of December Α	D. 1905, by and between Joanna Vann of White Oak, Led Er part of the first part and 	part and part and marcu L. Lockwood and the second s and the first of the first of the second of the second The second of the second of ٠,.,	of Dependency Mancae part of of the second part der and in pursuance of the provisions of section 72 of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, and the regulations prescribed by the Secretary the Interior thereunder.
30	ntained, and hereby agreed to be paid, observed, and performed by the part of the second part. The fire executors or administrators, do account to the part of the second part.
16	WITNESSETH: That the part of the first part, for and in consideration of the royalties, covenants, stipulations, and conditions hereinafte ntained, and hereby agreed to be paid, observed, and performed by the part of the second part, the term, executors or administrators, do acressed a decimal accountry of the part of the second part, the term of the term of the second part, the term of the term of the term of the second part, the term of the ter
-,.	years from the date hereof, all of the oil deposits and natural gas in or under the following described tract of land, lying and ) (ing within the Cherokee Indian Nation and within the Indian Territory, to-wit: The 6 1 2 1 2 1 2 to
. 18 . c	East half of the north Mest-quarter, i kalangang dan
1
f	section Sightles (16) township Leventy - one (2) north range Ihullen (13) Each f	the Indian Meridian, and containing Containing (80) tract, pipe, store, refine, and remove such oil and natural gas, and to occupy and use so much only of the surface of said land as may be reasonable Œ	cessary to carry on the work of prospecting for, extracting, piping, storing, refining, and removing such oil and natural gas, including also the right t t	tain from wells or other sources on said land, by means of pipe lines or otherwise, a sufficient supply of water to carry on said operations, and including t	Il further the right to use such oil and natural gas as fuel so far as it is necessary to the prosecution of said operations. In consideration of which the part of the second part hereby agrees and binds thoirs, execution of administrators to pay or cause to
, P	paid to the lessor, as royalty the sum of ten per cent. of the value, on the leased premises, of all crude oil extracted from the said land, and if the partie not, before the tenth day of the month succeeding its extraction, agree upon the value of the crude oil on the leased premises, the value thereof sha ally be determined under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior in such manner as he shall prescribe, and to so pay the royalty accruing for an
'n
	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sho 30 38	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each s-producing well, the lessor, to have free the use of gas for lighting and warming the residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the e e	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each s-producing well, the lessor, to have free the use of gas for lighting and warming free residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the seeto use a gas-producing well where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so fa
18 18	onth on or before the twenty-lifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each s-producing well, the lessorto have free the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the seeto use a gas-producing well where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so fa the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesseedesires to retain gas-producing privileges
(8) (8) (8)	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each s-producing well, the lessorto have free the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the seeto use a gas-producing well where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so for the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesseedesires to retain gas-producing privileges
(8) (8) (8)	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each sproducing well, the lessor to have free the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the see to use a gas-producing well where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so for the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum of the gas-producing well not utilized, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment preafter for such wells to be made in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment.
ga e a b	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each sproducing well, the lessor ga ei as a h	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on eac s-producing well, the lessor ga ei ei ei ei ei	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each sproducing well, the lessor ga e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each sproducing well, the lessor
e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each sproducing well, the lessor, to have free the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the see to use a gas-producing well where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so for the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee, desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum of the gas-producing well not utilized, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment exceeding well not utilized, the first payment to be made in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. And the part of the second part further agrees and binds the part of the first payment, here, securiors or administrators to pay or cause to be paid to the sor, as advanced annual royalty on this lease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first an sond years; Thirty cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the hand each succeeding year thereafter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid sha a credit on the stipulated royalties should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second pagelect or refuse to pay such advanced annual royalty for the period of sixty days after the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the
e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha institute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on eac s-producing well, the lessor
e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on eac s-producing well, the lessor
ga en a h	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha is it is the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each sproducing well, the lessor
e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on eac sproducing well, the lessor, to have free the use of gas for lighting and warming seed to each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on eac sproducing well where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so for the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee desires to retain gas-producing privileges. The shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the gas-producing well not utilized, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment and the part of the second part further agrees and binds the first payment. And the part of the second part further agrees and binds the first payment. And the part of the second part further agrees and binds the first payment. And the part of the second part further agrees and binds the first payment. And the part of the second part further agrees and binds the first payment. And the part of the second part further agrees and binds the first payment. And the part of the second part further dayance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the hand each succeeding year thereafter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid sha a credit on the stipulated royalties should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second payment of the second part further covenants and agrees to region the money and property of the lessor. The part of the second part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covere this lease, se e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e e	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each sproducing well, the lessor to have free the use of gas for lighting and warming the residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so fathe same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee desires to retain gas-producing privileges. The shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum of the gas-producing well not utilized, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment spreafter for such wells to be made in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. And the part of the second part further agrees and binds the same that the first payment. And the part of the second part further agrees and binds the same that fourth years; Thirty cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the third and fourth years; and Seventy-five cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the shand each succeeding year thereafter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid sha a credit on the stipulated royalties should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covere this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, an ould the part of the second part fail, neglect, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion of the cretary, be declared null and void, with or and he end of the service of the	onth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one bundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each sproducing well, the lessor to have free the use of gas for lighting and warming residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the see most of the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so for the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee desires to retain gas-producing privileges shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the gas-producing well not utilized, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment areafter for such wells to be made in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. And the part of the second part further agrees and binds the same, as advanced annual royalty on this lease, the sums of money as follows, to-wit: Fifteen cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the first and cond years; Thirty cents per acre per annum, in advance, for the hard each succeeding year thereafter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid sha a credit on the stipulated royalties should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second page of the second part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covere this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, and ould the part of the second part fail, neglect, or refuse to drill at least one well within the time stated, this lease may, in the discretion of the creatary, be declared null energy by bearing the second	both on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha institute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each special content of the permises. But failure on the part of the see. To use a gas-producing well where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so fe the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee. desires to retain gas-producing privileges. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum of the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee. desires to retain gas-producing privileges. Shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum of the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee. desires to retain gas-producing privileges. And the part of the date of the discovery of gas, payment of the second part further agrees and binds. The part of the second part further agrees and binds. The part of the second part further agrees and binds. The part of the second part further same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part of the second part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covered this lease, of the second part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covered this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon within twelve months from the date of the same and to promptly surrender agrees to operate the me in a workmanlike manner to the fullest possible extent, unavoidable casualties excepted; to commit no waste upon the said land, and to suffer no workmanlike manner to the fullest possible extent, unavoidable casualties excepted; to commit no waste upon the said land, and to suffer no committed upon the portion in the contract of the second part fail, neglect, or refuse constant of the constant of th	both on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on eac s-producing well, the lessor energy of the control	both on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on eac septoducing well, the lesson or sale of the sal	and the part of the second part further agrees and binds. Liver of the country for the discovery of gas, payment of the second part further agrees and binds. Liver of the second part further of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid sha a credit or the statud and and void, and all royaltys paid in advance, for the lease is to refuse to pay such advanced annual royalty of the second part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the same pay such advanced annual royalty of the second part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covere this lease, and to forther pay such advanced annual royalty of the second part further refuse to pay such advanced annual royalty of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money as follows, to write the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lease, the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lease, the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lease, the same becomes due and payable, then this lease shall, at the lease, the second part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covere this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, an ould the part. So the second part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covere this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, an ould the part. So the second part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands of the certary, be declared or constant of the constant of	isstitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each sproducing well, the lessorto have free the use of gas for lighting and warming ogaensah energian handan ha handan ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha	isstitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each sproducing well, the lessor ogaensah energian handan ha handan ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha ha	south on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one bundred and fifty dollars royalty; and so pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one bundred and fifty dollars propulty of the see to use a gas-producing well where the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so it the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee desires to retain gas-producing privileges or sale of the sal	noth on or bofore the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha nestitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on eac sproducing well, the lessor ga en sa h en se en sa h en	as producing well, the lessor over see the see that the see t	and no or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month she ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty, and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each sproducing well, the lesson to have free the use of gas for lighting and warming the residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee meeting to reasonably utilized at the rate so precribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so fethe same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee, desires to retain gas-producing privileges. We shall pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the gas producing well not utilized, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment of the second part further agrees and binds. Ends, the part of the second part further agrees and binds. Ends, the part of the second part further agrees and binds. Ends, the part of the second part further agrees and binds. Ends, the part of the second part further agrees and binds. Ends, the part of the second part further agrees and binds. Ends, the part of the second part further agrees and binds. Ends, the part of the second part further agrees and binds. Ends, the part of the second part further agrees and binds. Ends, the part of the second part further agrees and binds. Ends, the part of the second part further agrees and binds. Ends, the part of the second part further agrees and binds. Ends, the part of the second part further agrees and binds. Ends, the part of the second part further agrees and the part of the second part further agrees and agrees to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid sha a credit on the stipulated royalites should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced or and further, that should the part of the second part further covenants and agrees to run; og en	buth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month she ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty, and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each sproducing well, the lesson to have free the use of gas for lighting and warming or gas and he see if the see if t	buth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month she ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty, and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on eac s-producing well, the lessor, to have free the use of gas for lighting and warming gales and he seems of the seems	some nor before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month sha ustitute the criterion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the epd of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on each sproducing well, the lessor. To have free the use of gas for lighting and warming enders the residence on the premises. But failure on the part of the same relates to mining oil, but if the lesseedesires for tein gas p-roducing yell have the same cannot be reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease to fine same relates to mining oil, but if the lesseedesires for tein gas p-roducing yell not utilized, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment of the payment of the second part further agrees and binds co ga	And the part. — of the second part further agrees and binds. Leave Le galerane each been each be	noth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude of fluctuates, the average value during the month sho institute the critopion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the ead of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on eac sproducing well where the same claim of the reasonably utilized at the rate so prescribed, shall not work a forfeiture of this lease so fat the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessesdesires to retain gas-producing producing producing mell not utilized, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment restricts for which wells to be made in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. And the part cogaeiseach eise if each control of the control of	noth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude of fluctuates, the average value during the month she institute the critopion in compounting the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one bundred and fifty dollars royalty, on easy producing well, the lessor galerase saturate sat	noth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude of fluctuates, the average value during the month she neithite the critopion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on eas a producing well, the lessor—to have free the use of gas for lighting and warming—tresidence on the premises. But failure on the part of the seame relates to mining oil, but if the lessee—desires to retain gas—producing gues—the pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the same relates to mining oil, but if the lessee—desires to retain gas—producing privileges.—We had pay a royalty of fifty dollars per annum on the gas—producing well not utilized, the first payment to become due and to be made within thirty days from the date of the discovery of gas, payment researched to the discovery of gas, payment menter for such wells to be made in advance at the first of each succeeding year, dating from the first payment. And the part—of the second part further agrees and binds—the payment of the second part further agrees and binds—the payment of the second part further agrees and binds—the payment of the second part agreed that said sums of money as follows, to wit: Fifteen cents are are per annum, in advance, for the hand each succeeding year thereafter of the term for which this lease is to run; it being understood and agreed that said sums of money so paid sha a credit on the stipulated royalties should the same exceed such sums paid as advanced royalty, and further, that should the part—of the second part guest to the part of the second part guest of the part of the second part further covenants and agrees to exercise diligence in the sinking of wells for oil and natural gas on the lands covere this lease, and to drill at least one well thereon within twelve months from the date of the approval of the bond by the Secretary of the Interior, and old the part—of the second part fail, neglect, or refuse to drill at lea gales as a second of the secon	noth on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding, and where the value of the crude oil fluctuates, the average value during the month shustitute the critopion in computing the royalty; and to pay in yearly payments, at the end of each year, one hundred and fifty dollars royalty, on ear sproducing well, the leasor

. 0